TRUMP ON VERGE OF SECOND IMPEACHMENT IN HOUSE

Democratic Party-controlled US House of Representatives is all set to impeach President Trump on Thursday morning

FIVE REPUBLICANS WILL SUPPORT THE MOVE

While Trump's first impeachment in 2019 brought no Republican votes, this time at least five Republican leaders have said they will support the Democrat move. The article of impeachment charges Trump with a count of 'incitement of insurrection' for his actions on January 6, when he delivered a speech inciting his supporters to lay siege to the Capitol

DON TAKES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR RIOTS

- Trump has taken no responsibility for the Capitol riots but cautioned that the impeachment move is causing "tremendous danger to our country, and it's causing tremendous anger"

BSY Cabinet adds the power of seven; Nagesh dropped

Muniratna left out despite CM's promise, one berth kept vacant

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

THE cabinet expansion exercise is never without heartburn and surprises and Wednesday was no exception. Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa inducted seven new ministers while Excise Minister H Nagesh was dropped from the cabinet. In a surprising development, MLA N Muniratna failed to make it to the cabinet despite an assurance from the CM himself that he will get a ministerial berth.

In the much-awaited rejig, the CM inducted MLCs M T B Nagaraj, R Shankar and C P Yogeshwar along with MLAs Umesh Katti, S Angara, Murugesh Nirani and Aravind Limbavali into the cabinet. Late on Wednesday, the new ministers were allotted offices at Vidhana Soudha. Expectedly, disgruntlement among those legislators who failed to make it, came to the fore.

Of the seven new ministers, except six-time MLA Angara, all of them had served as ministers earlier in various governments. While the portfolios for the new ministers are likely to be allocated soon, Nagesh, who was dropped from the cabinet, has been appointed as chairman of the Ambedkar Development Corporation with cabinet rank. With his resignation, CM has kept one berth vacant in the 34-member cabinet.

"Let us work together for the state's development and to meet the expectations of the people," the CM said while congratulating the new ministers. While experienced leaders like Katti, an eight-time MLA, and former ministers Nirani and Limbavali joined the cabinet, the CM came under fire from his own party legislators over the lack of representation in the cabinet for many districts as it has turned out to be heavily Bengaluru- and Belagavi-centric. Mega ₹46K-cr deal for 83 LCAs

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

IN a big boost to the indigenous defence manufacturing sector, the Cabinet Committee on Security on Wednesday approved the procurement of 83 Light Combat Aircraft (LCA) Tejas, worth nearly ₹46,000 crore.

In all, 73 LCA Tejas Mk-1A fighters and 10 LCA Tejas Mk-1 trainers are to be bought at a cost of ₹45,696 crore from Hindustan Aeronautics Ltd, Bengaluru, which is developing the aircraft. Besides, a ₹1,202 crore deal for the design and development of infrastructure for spares and repairs of Tejas was also approved.

The first flight of the Tejas Mark 1A is expected by the end of 2022. The LCA is equipped with an Active Electronically Scanned Array Radar, Beyond Visual Range Missiles, Electronic Warfare Suite and Air-to-Air Refuelling facilities to enhance their combat ability and maintainability.

HAL chairman R Madhavan called the decision a major boost in the atmanirbhar (self-sufficiency) drive in the aerospace and aeronautics sector. "The production rate for this increased requirement by IAF is being augmented by HAL from 8 to 16 aircraft per year," he added.

The Mk-1A variant is an indigenously designed, developed and manufactured state-of-the-art modern 4+ generation fighter aircraft. "It is the first "Buy (Indian-Indigenously Designed, Developed and Manufactured)" category procurement of combat aircraft with an indigenous content of 50%, which will progressively reach 60% by the end of the programme," the Defence Ministry said.

About 560 large and small companies are contributing to the Tejas programme. "It is estimated that when the LCA MK1A programme kicks off, it will generate primary jobs to 5,000 people across the country, foster local industry and help skill up the Indian workforce," added Madhavan.

VACCINE VIALS ON THE MOVE TO DISTRICTS

RANJANI MADHAVAN & IFFATH FATHIMA @Bengaluru

AFTER the arrival of Covishield vaccine vials on Tuesday, their distribution to most of the districts began on Wednesday afternoon and the exercise will be completed in a couple of days, ready to be administered on January 16.

Arundhati Chandrashekar, Managing Director, National Health Mission (NHM), said, "The Covid-19 vaccine distribution to the districts began on Wednesday afternoon, and will be completed in one or two days. We have the regular vaccine transportation vans we use for immunisations to collect vials from Bengaluru or the five other regional storage facilities."

Totally, there are 88 vaccine stores in Karnataka's immunisation cold chain network. The two largest state storage facilities are in Bengaluru and Belagavi. P3

Bird census under way in Nagarahole

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Forest Department will hold the second edition of the bird census in Nagarahole Tiger Reserve between January 23 and 26.

The exercise will update the first census done in October 2020 during which the butterfly and avifauna count was done with the help of Krushnamegh Kunte from the National Centre for Biological Sciences, and experts from Ponnampet College of Forestry and Bengaluru Butterfly Club.

Nagarahole Tiger Reserve Director, D Mahesh Kumar told The New Indian Express, that this census is different from the annual Hakki Habba (bird festival). This exercise is limited to the reserve only. "The first exercise was done in October (2020) during which around 270 species of birds were recorded. The second exercise will be done now to update the list. This is the right time as many migratory birds come to the southern regions. It is also interesting because bar-headed geese are being sighted in the backwaters," he said.

Mahesh added that the census will be done in all eight ranges and volunteers have been invited this season. However those who have the e-bird app are being preferred.

Forest officials said the Hakki Habba is an awareness campaign to make people aware of the rich biodiversity. This exercise in Nagarahole however, is being done to create a database of the species in the forest and know the biodiversity of the region. It helps ground staff become more aware, be keen observers and better conservationists.

BU withdraws affiliation to 8 B.Ed colleges

Urges students not to seek admission

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BANGALORE University (BU) has urged the general public not to seek admissions in eight colleges which offer a B.Ed course from this academic year, as the university has withdrawn affiliation to these institutions.

The University Syndicate made the decision during its January 5 meeting, and announced it on Wednesday.

The move comes after the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) withdrew recognition for the following colleges for the BEd course: Kalaniketan College of Education, Kudlu, off Hosur Road; St. Stephen's Teachers College, Maragondanahalli village; GKM B.Ed. College, JP Nagar; Pragathi College of Education, Chikkabanavara; Shantiniketan B.Ed. College, Bilekahalli, Frank College of Education, J P Nagar; Amitha B.Ed College, Mahalakshmipura; Florence English Institute of B.Ed Training, Florence English Institute of B.Ed Training.

BU Vice-Chancellor Venugopal K R told TNIE that NCTE had disaffiliated these colleges much earlier, and students would not have got admission. Bangalore University has now decided to withdraw affiliation.

Affiliation was withdrawn because of irregularities in building survey numbers, lack of infrastructure and inadequate number of teachers or students, he said. In some cases, certain colleges even seek disaffiliation from NCTE due to shortage of staff or insufficient number of students applying for a course, he added.

If students are admitted, BU would not be responsible for such admissions.

With colleges set to open, there is apprehension about opening hostels for students. However, Venugopal said that one has to try, with the Covid vaccines arriving in the state and the low caseload.

Pocket-friendly e-autos at Metro station

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

WITH the excitement of spending just Rs 10 to commute from the city to the airport yet to die down among Bengalureans, comes the news that an autorickshaw service for the same sum is ready to spread its reach to a few Metro stations to complete last-mile connectivity.

MetroRide, an app-based electric auto service with women drivers only, made its debut at the Yelachenahalli Metro station a fortnight ago and plans to cover Konanakunte Cross Metro station, from where the new Green Line of Phase-II, to be launched on Thursday. Indiranagar, Baiyappanahalli and Mysuru Road Metro stations are in the pipeline.

The light blue-coloured autos with uniformed drivers, seat two passengers at a time and have a partition for distancing. Five of the proposed 100 Piaggio Ape E-City autos are plying and 15 more are likely to hit the streets in a week.

Girish Nagpal, chief executive officer and co-founder, said, "We have served nearly 600 customers in the last two weeks. Our fare structure is Rs 10 for the first 1.5 km and Rs 5 per km after that. In most cases, it does not exceed Rs 25 as our customers are all those who use the Metro and reside within 4 km of the stations." However, one difference with the conventional auto or cab is that this three-wheeler would drop the customer at at pre-fixed points in an area and not at their doorstep.

Nagpal says, "We aim to create a carbonless and affordable first- and last-mile commute ecosystem and work mostly with women drivers and 100% electric vehicles. MetroRide wants more women with four-wheeler licenses as there is a shortage of women drivers." Shortage has forced a few male drivers also to be hired.

Rincy C P, a health care worker at ESIC Medical College is a happy customer. "I commute from my house near Yelachenahalli to Rajaji Nagar by Metro. I used to spend Rs 70 one-way to reach Yelachenahalli by cab and my husband would pick me up one way. Since I started using MetroRide a week ago, I spend only Rs 20 daily."

P L Kishan, has been paying Rs 15 to book a auto from Yelachenahalli station to his home near Brigade Millenium Apartments daily. "It has been a very good experience. I will be happier if they drop me even closer to my home and charge an extra Rs 5 for it."

Booking can be done through the app (www.Metroride.in), or in person at Metro stations.

B'luru had sixth-worst traffic in world, roads busy even during lockdown

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

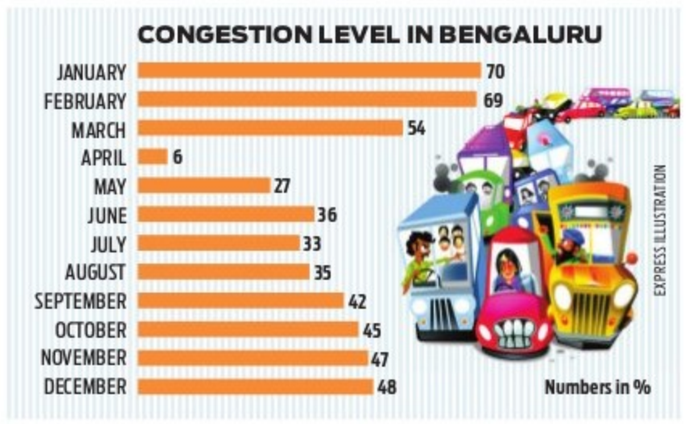
ALTHOUGH traffic congestion in Bengaluru came down by 20 per cent last year, the city still made it to the list of top 10 cities in the world where vehicles move at snail's pace.

Bengaluru ranked sixth, and is second in the country after Mumbai, on the TomTom Traffic Index released on Wednesday. The report details the traffic situation in 2020 in over 400 cities in 57 countries.

The city with the worst traffic congestion was Moscow, followed by Mumbai, Bogota, Manila, Istanbul and Bengaluru. New Delhi stood at number 8.

In 2020, Bengaluru saw an average decrease of 20% in congestion, and a 35% and 32% average drop in traffic snarls during the morning and evening rush respectively, the report said. It topped in congestion even during the lockdown, compared to Mumbai, New Delhi and Pune.

Bengaluru saw 147 days with low traffic last year, and the worst traffic day was January 6, a Monday, with the highest average daily congestion of 89%. January was the most congested month of 2020 at 70%, while April was the least congested month at 6% congestion due to the lockdown.



The report is based on TomTom's traffic data, which is powered by 600 million connected devices. Werner van Huyssteen, general manager, India, TomTom, said, "Last year, we announced that both global and India congestion levels in 2019 had increased for the ninth consecutive Traffic Index. In 2020, we saw a vastly different picture. From lockdowns to closed borders, people's movement changed, and it changed very fast."

"Although traffic congestion in India was down in 2020, it's not going to become a trend unless we take action. We might even see traffic levels shoot up again as people get back to work and old routines. That's why now is the time that India's city planners, policy makers, employers and drivers must take stock of what they will do to make the roads less congested in future," he added.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

14th January: Mars and Saturn link up in a particularly creative pattern over the present time. Actually, it's a peak moment for inventive enterprises, so if you're buzzing with new ideas then one of them could be just what's required. All you have to do is find the people who can help you put it into practice.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Relaxation is all very well, but do maintain your guard. There is still a great deal that can go wrong, even if some areas of life seem to be picking up. This is a time of extremes, and there is little room for moderation. It may be up to you to find a middle way and persuade everyone to compromise.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It is almost impossible to say whether today's lunar alignments will soothe your troubled brow or further obscure your view of reality. So much depends on your skill in handling difficult people. You may be about to impress with your success in soothing a hot-tempered colleague.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The truth of the matter, whether professional or personal, will be obvious next week, so just hold on a little while longer. In the meantime, there's probably no respite from hard work. Don't exhaust yourself, though. You'll be no use to anyone if you're fed up and flat on your back.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Emotional difficulties brought about by the challenging and change-inducing alignments of Venus, Mercury and Pluto, are surely enough to try the patience of a saint. But there is no reason why you shouldn't give up and walk away from responsibilities which are no longer worthwhile.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You may still be feeling a little surprised by recent announcements and you might have to be fast on your feet if you are to regain the initiative. Pay more attention to financial affairs under today's mildly confusing lunar alignments. But don't take final decisions unless you are one hundred and one percent sure.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Your ideas are fine, but it may take someone else to stiffen your resolve and make you commit yourself to a particular course of action. The Sun may make information difficult to come by, though. But, then, perhaps there really is nothing at all to find out!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The Moon's sway over a sector of your horoscope ruling work and self-sacrifice indicates that this is not the time to abandon your responsibilities or renege on commitments. Your deeply complex planetary patterns advise you to stick to your guns.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
I don't want to keep harking on about the same old things, but you're still passing through an emotional minefield which could set off fireworks in almost any area, personal or professional. Being a Scorpio, though, you are well fitted to cope with life's little mysteries.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
It will be worth your while to offer an olive branch to partners and associates. Remember those wise sayings about forgiving seven times seven and turning the other cheek: your concern for others should win out over self-interest. Plus, a younger relation may provide good advice.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Venus and Jupiter are offering you generous help via close partners, but you may have to ask first. This is no time for reticence, so push yourself to the front of the queue. The Capricorn who thrives will be he, or she, who abandons normal reserve and shows a bit of bare-faced cheek.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Although certain individuals are quite pleasant to your face, you know that you might not have been told the entire, unadulterated truth. On the other hand, relationships at work are really quite profitable, and you may gain emotionally as much as financially.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Others may have used emotional ties to try and force you into a particular situation. However, lunar alignments indicate that you have the advantage and that Piscean wit, subtlety and sensitivity will win out. And that has to be the best news going.

Many health workers plan to give vaccination a miss

They are unhappy that no choice has been given between Covishield and Covaxin; experts raise concerns over data

CHETANA BELAGERE @Bengaluru

FRONTLINE workers, who are the first in line for the Covid vaccine, are irked that they have not been given the option of choosing between Serum Institute of India's Covishield and Bharat Biotech's Covaxin.

With Phase 1 of vaccine administration all set to kick off from Saturday, many are planning to opt out of getting vaccinated due to lack of data over the safety of Covaxin. According to experts, the Central Government should have waited for Covaxin's efficacy studies to be completed before greenlighting its rollout.

"The government has indicated that there will not be a choice between Covishield or Covaxin. While both are under restricted emergency use, one of them is still awaiting efficacy studies to be completed. Also, it has been approved specifically under clinical trial mode where specific consent will presumably need to be taken. This might raise questions about (lack of) choice, and could impact uptake," Bio-ethics researcher Anant Bhan told The New Indian Express.

Healthcare workers contend that at the time of approvals for the two vaccines, various experts, including Dr Bhargava and Dr Randeep Guleria of All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS), had said that Covaxin will remain a "back-up" till its efficacy data from the ongoing Phase-3 trials is made available.

"But the rollout of both vaccines clearly shows that Covaxin was not a 'back-up'," a senior doctor said who has decided not to take the vaccine for now. The doctor added, "Also, both vaccines are publicly funded and both have issues with lack of data. For Covaxin, Phase-3 trials are still going on and no raw data is available. And for both the vaccines, information around adverse effects remains opaque. There is also concern among the medical fraternity regarding the rollout, especially around adverse effects following neurological symptoms and the issues in Bhopal."

Several of them, who are already apprehensive of taking the vaccine, may now even opt out of vaccination, even though they are healthcare workers, said another doctor.

However, Dr Jayanthi C R of Bangalore Medical College and Research Institute (BMCRI) said that people should not be apprehensive of taking the jab as the government would have taken the decision keeping in mind the safety of people. "In many countries, more than one vaccine has been given. We need not worry or panic. The earlier data available shows that both the vaccines are safe," she added.

Experts wonder if the government is administering Covaxin in some places due to logistic constraints. According Dr Bhan, "Only one type of vaccine will be available for recipients. This might be due to logistical constraints of limited supply."

Dr Giridhara Babu, senior epidemiologist and member of Covid Advisory Committee, said that the government probably needs to explain why no choice has been given. "Although both the vaccines are safe, the government could have waited for the data to have come out," he felt.

370 Tibetans likely to get jab in first round

BALA CHAUHAN @Bengaluru

AMONG the 7,95,500 frontline healthcare workers, who will receive the 'Covishield' vaccine in Karnataka in the first round, the names of 370 Tibetans living in the five settlements in the State, may also figure in the list. India will kick-start the national vaccination drive from January 16.

Chophel Thupten, the Chief Representative, South Zone, Central Tibetan Administration (CTA), told TNIE that they had sent the names of these healthcare workers to the taluk health officers. "We had sent the names of 370 frontline Covid workers, which include those who have been working in the Primary Healthcare Centres (PHCs) in their taluks, and of some community leaders, who were also involved in Covid duties," he said.

Karnataka may have the highest number of Tibetan frontline healthcare workers in the country to receive the much-awaited vaccine. Tibetans living in exile are spread in five settlements in the state — two in Bylakuppe, one in Hunsur, both in Mysuru district, one in Mundgod in Uttara Kannada district and one in Kollegal and Chamarajanagar district.

PREPPING FOR JAN 16

State has got 7.9 lakh vaccine doses so far

BESIDES, there are five regional vaccine storage (RVS) spaces in Chitradurga, Kalaburagi, Dakshina Kannada, Mysuru and Bagalkot.

On Wednesday, Belagavi received 1.45 lakh vaccine vials in the storage facility which were picked up for further distribution to vaccine stores in other districts. "The vaccine vials will be be sent to eight district headquarters — Bagalkot, Hubbali, Dharwad, Haveri, Gadag, Koppal, Uttara Kannada and Belagavi," explained District Health Officer (DHO) Dr Shashikant Munyal.

Some other districts are waiting for the go-ahead from Bengaluru to collect the vials. Vijayapura District Health Officer Dr M M Kapse said, "We will receive an intimation from Bengaluru when and from where to pick up the vaccines. It may either be from Belagavi or Bagalkot. We usually collect vaccines from Bagalkot for other regular immunisations like polio, measles, etc. We have the necessary cold storage boxes to transport the vaccines in temperatures of 2-8 degrees celsius."

So far, the state has got 7,93,710 vaccine doses, wherein Belgavi has got 1,46,750 doses while Bengaluru has 6,46,960. The vaccine is for 15,730 central health care workers (CHCW) followed by 7,75,400 state health care workers and 2,580 armed forces medical services.

The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) limits will get the highest number of vials with a total of 2,10,080 dosages which includes 1,580 vaccines for central health care workers and 2,08,500 vaccine for the state health care workers. Dakshina Kannada will get 48,450 doses, Mysuru 41,460 , Belagavi 35,960, Bengaluru Urban 37,610 doses, and Dharwad 28,380. Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar pointed out that 20,000 doses of Covaxin will be arriving in the state soon and both the vaccines will be given in the state, but the recipients cannot choose.

He said the central government has issued guidelines regarding which district and which staff have to be given the vaccination. All districts will be given the vaccines and the vaccination drive will be inaugurated on January 16.

Six centres to launch vaccine drive in B'luru

WHO'S IN LIST

N Manjunatha Prasad said in the first phase, health care providers will be given the vaccine, in the second phase all BBMP officials, police and revenue workers will be covered. In the third phase it will be given to people as per the voters list - for people above 50 years of age, and those who have comorbidities.

Vaccines being transported to the Yellamma Dasappa Hospital in Bengaluru for storage on Wednesday | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AS many as 1.05 lakh Covishield vaccine doses have been stored in Dasappa Hospital and will be administered to health workers from six centres in Bengaluru to start with, Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike Commissioner N Manjunatha Prasad said on Wednesday after inspecting stocks at the hospital.

The centres which will start administer the vaccine are: KC General Hospital, Victoria Hospital, CV Raman General Hospital, Jayanagar General Hospital, St John's Medical College and Mallasandra Primary Health Centre. The vaccine will be given between 9am and 5pm on January 16.

"The vaccine will be given to 100 people in each centre on that day and all those who are getting the first shot will be informed via SMS or phone call. The BBMP identified 760 centres in BBMP limits which will start administering the vaccine later," Prasad said.

Of these 760 centres, 148 are primary health centres, where the BBMP is ensuring that there are proper cold chain points and that they are well-connected to hospitals and centres for hinderance free administration.

Umesh Katti (Belagavi)

Eight-time MLA from Hukkeri, Katti has served in several state cabinets and held several key portfolios. With Katti's induction, Belagavi district will have 5 ministers

Aravind Limbavali (Bengaluru)

Three-time Mahadevapura MLA, his name was doing the rounds for some time. He is actively involved in party work. With his induction, the number of ministers from Bengaluru goes up to 8

S Angara (Dakshina Kannada)

Six-time MLA from Sullia, S Angara makes it to the cabinet after a long wait. His name was proposed even during the first BS Yediyurappa government in 2008, but he had missed the opportunity

R Shankar (MLC, Haveri)

Shankar, who was minister in the JDS-Congress government, had resigned to support formation of the BJP government. He was not given a ticket to contest the bypolls and was elected as MLC.

MTB Nagaraj (MLC, Bengaluru Rural)

Nagaraj had resigned as minister in the coalition government to support the BJP government formation. He lost the 2019 bypolls from Hosakote assembly segment and was elected MLC

Murugesh Nirani (Bagalkote)

BJP loyalist Nirani was Industries Minister in the first Yediyurappa government. He is a strong Panchamashali Lingayat leader

CP Yogeshwar (MLC, Ramanagara)

Former minister Yogeshwar was made MLC after he unsuccessfully contested the 2018 assembly elections from Channapatna. He played a role in the collapse of the JDS-Congress government

- Two politically dominant castes put together make up only 32 per cent of the State's total population
- MLCs make up 15.5 per cent of the cabinet, some allege that a few regions have been decieved

5 MLCs, more than 50% of cabinet from 2 dists

ANUSHA RAVI @Bengaluru

TEN Lingayats, including the chief minister and seven Vokkaligas in BS Yediyurappa's 33-member cabinet make up for more than half of the ministerial cabinet with 51.51 per cent.

The two politically dominant castes put together only make-up 32 per cent of the State's total population.

The over-representation of the two castes have created restlessness among BJP workers and leaders. But the grouse over imbalance is not limited just to castes. Regional representation has also been an issue with many leaders including the likes of SA Ramadass and MP Renukacharya alleging their respective regions have been deceived.

Eight of the cabinet ministers are from Bengaluru and five from Belagavi region making up 39.9 per cent of the cabinet. At the crux of the skewered regional representation as well as caste representation is BS Yediyurappa and the BJP's commitment to MLAs of Congress-JDS coalition who jumped ships to bring the saffron party to power in Karnataka in 2019.

"Apart from the regional and caste imbalance, the cabinet is also made up of five MLCs. This is unheard of in the recent past.

People who have lost elections have been made ministers while those who fought and won seats are made to wait," exclaimed a senior BJP National Executive team functionary.

With the induction of CP Yogeshwar, MTB Nagaraj and R Shankar on Wednesday, the cabinet has five MLCs, including Deputy Chief Minister Laxman Savadi.

The MLCs make up 15.5 per cent of the cabinet.

Interestingly, 12 of the 33 ministers i.e., 36.36 per cent of the cabinet, is comprised of those legislators who jumped ships to the BJP from the Congress-JDS coalition government in 2019.

All of the 12 MLAs have been given cabinet berths as a means for BS Yediyurappa to keep up his promise when they agreed to quit the coalition and join the BJP.

CABINET MEET

City dwellers to pay higher property tax

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

PROPERTY tax is due to be hiked for Bengaluru and other corporation and municipal bodies which come under the Karnataka Muncipal Corporation (KMC) Act. The cabinet meeting conducted by Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa took up the issue on Wednesday, following a direction by Union authorities. Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy said Karnataka has decided to revise property tax on houses and vacant sites under the KMC Act Sections 109 and 109A. "We are keeping user fee pending and increasing property tax, this will help us increase borrowing and GSDP," he said.

Vacant sites that measure less than 1000 sqft are exempt from property tax. Property tax owners will benefit this year, as guidance value is the measure for calculating tax, and has been reduced from 50 per cent to 25 per cent, Madhuswamy said. The Centre had issued a direction to amend it before January 25.

He said the Tatas had been roped in to modernise 155 ITI institutions, and Tata Technologies was making a substantial investment to upgrade these institutions by bearing 88 per cent of the total project cost of about Rs 4,600 crore. Cabinet approvals have been given for this.

The cabinet accorded permission to release Rs 5 crore for a mammoth 325-ft bronze statue of Basaveshwara in Murugharajendra Mutt in Chitradurga. The government had granted Rs 20 crore for the project and released Rs 10 crore, and will now release an additional Rs 5 crore.

With a severe shortage of police quarters, Rs 2,000 crore would be spent to put up 10,034 quarters across the state over a 60-month period, for which approvals have been granted.

Around 96 lakes and tanks will be filled up through the Hemavathi-Yettinahole scheme in the Tumakuru-Tiptur region, and Rs 200 crore has been earmarked for this project through the minor irrigation department.

The government has agreed to release Rs 15 crore for sericulture farmers under pending Covid subsidy.

Long wait pays off for soft-spoken Angara

VINCENT D'SOUZA @ Mangaluru

IT has been a decades' long wait for S Angara, a six-time MLA from Sullia assembly constituency in Dakshina Kannada, who finally made it to the State Cabinet on Wednesday.

The name of the 62-year-old, who represents a SC-reserved constituency, would float whenever BJP was in power ever since it stitched an alliance with JDS to form the government in 2006, but a minister's post somehow always eluded him.

Angara's prospects seemed bright when B S Yediyurappa took oath as chief minister again about one-and-a-half years ago, as the five others elected along with him from Dakshina Kannada district were first-timers. But the soft-spoken MLA didn't stand a chance amid stiff lobbying from others, especially the turncoats.

Angara, who dropped out of high school to support his family by working as a daily wager in arecanut plantations, always believed that his work should fetch him a minister's post. When the BJP decided to field him for MLA election for the first time in 1994, he was still working as a daily wager. He is known for simplicity and still lives in Dasanakaje village where he was born.

"It is a miracle. We had given up hopes of him becoming a minister in this government, given the stiff lobbying from many aspirants. Angara didn't lobby and yet got it, which is something great," said a party leader.

Angara is most likely to replace Kota Srinivas Poojary as Dakshina Kannada's district in-charge minister as the latter is from Udupi.

Old-timers seethe over choice of new ministers

ANUSHA RAVI & NAUSHAD BIJAPUR
@Bengaluru/ Belagavi

IN a rather uncharacteristic move, a dozen BJP legislators publicly criticised Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa's choice of cabinet ministers. While Basanagouda Patil Yatnal and M P Renukacharya are known for expressing their displeasure publicly, even legislators like Sunil Kumar and SA Ramadas, otherwise silent in public, took to public forums to express disappointment.

The harshest attack on Yediyurappa himself came from former Union Minister Basanagouda Patil Yatnal, MLC H Vishwanath and Bommanahalli MLA Satish Reddy, while Ramadas, Sunil Kumar and Renukacharya termed the selection of ministers "unfair" to loyal party workers.

However, it was State party functionaries who were seething with anger — while they had recommended four names to Yediyurappa, he chose only one. "Yediyurappa went to New Delhi with nine names, while the party had recommended four names — S Angara, Sunil Kumar, Halappa Achar and Appachu Ranjan. He was asked to keep his promise to three aspirants, and induct these four, but inducted only one. It is an insult to loyal workers who are the future of the party," said a disgruntled senior functionary, who is a member of the national executive team.

While Yatnal called the newly sworn-in ministers "blackmailers" who had made it to the cabinet through unfair means, Dharwad MLA Aravind Bellad termed the inclusion of seven ministers "unacceptable" and said the Chief Minister had ignored young, potential leaders. Vishwanath, too, accused Yediyurappa of yielding to blackmailers.

Karkala MLA Sunil Kumar tweeted: "Loyalty to party, development and Hindutva are my agendas. I do not know other ways. I haven't learnt glorification of caste politics. I haven't indulged in blackmail for posts and never will." MLA from Belagavi Abhay Patil tweeted that there was no place for leaders who were loyal to the party and stuck to the party's principles.

A staunch BJP loyalist who is known to have a rapport with Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Krishnaraja MLA Ramadass reminded the leaders on a public forum, that he has served the party for 28 years.

Honnali MLA and Chief Minister's Political Secretary M P Renukacharya pointed out that the cabinet was dominated by legislators from Bengaluru and Belagavi. "Injustice has been meted out to Hyderabad-Karnataka, Central and coastal Karnataka regions. The cabinet is limited to Bengaluru and Belagavi. I am upset. Who should I narrate my woes to?" he asked. Bommanahalli MLA M Satish Reddy demanded to know what yardstick was used to select ministers.

"The absence of late Union Minister Ananth Kumar, who had an ear for our woes, is very clearly felt," he said. Many old-timers are mulling taking up the issue with the party Central leadership.

Jarkiholi asks for more

Water Resources Minister Ramesh Jarkiholi, who herded 17 MLAs into the BJP to help Yediyurappa form the government, is also upset. "Five more MLAs from my group need to be included into the state cabinet. I hope that those deprived of cabinet berths may be included in the next major reshuffle of the cabinet to be taken up in April," he said. Terming legislators from his group as "leaders with huge potential", Jarkiholi said that Yogeshwar played a key role in government formation, and deserved a berth, as does MLA Malikayya Guttedar. Vishwanath could not be included due to some legal hurdles, but he certainly deserved a place, he said.

Discontent out in the open

OUT of 33 ministers, eight are from Bengaluru and five are from Belagavi. Though it is likely to help BJP in the upcoming Belagavi LS bypoll and the BBMP elections, as many as 13 districts have remained unrepresented in the cabinet.

Many legislators have expressed their displeasure and some have decided to take up the matter with the central leaders. BJP MLA from Mysuru, S A Ramdas, termed it as "injustice to Old Mysuru region" and Karkala MLA Sunil Kumar said he does not believe in blackmail tactics to become a minister.

Many even questioned the need to make MLCs ministers while ignoring the MLAs.

Party national general secretary in charge of Karnataka, Arun Singh, told reporters that the CM will speak to the disgruntled MLAs in the coming days. "Every MLA in the BJP is capable of becoming a minister, but there are only limited berths," he reasoned.

Party sources said some disgruntled MLAs are planning to meet Amit Shah on January 16. The sources also said that the CM and the party leaders will take all its legislators, including Muniratna, into confidence.

"Muniratna's court case is expected to be cleared in the next six to eight weeks. After that, he will be inducted in the cabinet. This is why Nagesh was told to resign so that one berth remains vacant. The party high command has agreed to it," a senior BJP leader said. The case registered against him in 2018 pertained to alleged fake voter ID cards found in large numbers in properties belonging to him. The case is now before the Supreme Court, which is the reason for the party's central leadership not clearing his name, the leader said.

Sources said the new ministers are likely to be given portfolios that are with the CM, besides additional portfolios that are with some ministers.

After C T Ravi's resignation, three portfolios — Kannada and Culture, Youth and Sports Service and Tourism — are to be re-allotted. Deputy CM Dr CN Ashwathnarayan has Higher Education, IT/BT and Skill Development; Dr K Sudhakar has Health and Medical Education portfolios; Kota Srinivas Poojari has Endowment and Fisheries; Narayana Gowda has Municipal Administration along with Horticulture and Sericulture.

Sources said the CM may keep Bengaluru Development, Finance, Intelligence, while the remaining ones are likely to be allotted to the new ministers.

Nagesh dropped to make space

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

EXCISE Minister H Nagesh, independent MLA from Mulbagal in Kolar, was on Wednesday dropped from the ministry to vacate one berth in the cabinet. He will be appointed as Chairman of Ambedkar Development Corporation with the rank and status of a cabinet minister.

H Nagesh

According to a note issued by the Chief Minister's Office (CMO) in the evening, Nagesh resigned from the cabinet and requested the CM to appoint him as the chairman of the Ambedkar Development Corporation, and the CM obliged by approving his appointment.

"I am resigning on my own and I will abide by any decision taken by the CM," Nagesh said after his meeting with the CM and the ministers, during which he was convinced to resign. "I have been assured of a suitable post that is equivalent to that of a minister," he said.

Muniratna tries to convince CM to change mind

BJP MLA N Muniratna, who won the bypoll from Rajarajeshwari Nagar and was looking for a berth, was miffed with CM B S Yediyurappa on being left out of the cabinet and was at the latter's residence till late on Tuesday night, and again on Wednesday morning, to make him change his mind. The CM is said to have made attempts to convince central leaders to include Muniratna into the cabinet.

I do not know about the exaggerated caste-based politics, and I did not blackmail anyone to get a post. Adherence to party's decorum, development of the constituency and Hindutva are in my agenda and I will never tread any alternate path to reach the goal

V Sunil Kumar, Karkala MLA

Yediyurappa has failed to keep his promise and didn't acknowledge the sacrifice made to make him the chief minister. As many as 13 ministers are from Veerashaiva communitya and 11 from Vokkaligas, who have taken a lion's share in the cabinet. The CM's ministry must have people from all communities

PANDEMIC OR NOT, BJP SET TO HOLD RALLY FOR AMIT SHAH, 3 LAKH EXPECTED

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Belagavi

EVEN as pandemic norms are in place, BJP leaders in Karnataka are going ahead with a massive rally. As many as three lakh people are expected to gather at the district stadium in Belagavi on January 17 for the party's Jana Sevak Samavesha which will be addressed by Home Minister Amit Shah.

Water Resources Minister Ramesh Jarkiholi, who is overseeing arrangements for the event, told The New Indian Express that 85,000 vehicles are expected to bring people to the venue. He met several party leaders at the stadium on Wednesday and discussed measures to make the programme a success.

Several BJP veterans from across the country are expected to participate.

However, with barely any space for parking outside the stadium, the thought of 85,000 vehicles arriving in Belagavi city for the event has a local leader wondering how the police will manage traffic snarls.

Meanwhile, noted RTI activist Bheemappa Gadad has questioned the ruling party's decision to hold such a big rally at a time when Covid norms are in force.

"The government should ensure that the mega event is cancelled or it should withdraw all Covid rules in force before the event is held in Belagavi," he said.

On the one hand, the government has collected lakhs of rupees in fines from people failing to wear masks, and on the other, it is allowing such huge rallies to be held.

"There isn't a single example of government authorities imposing fines on any politician or leader who did not wear a mask," he said.

In a letter to the Chief Secretary, Gadad said that if the government fails to respond on measures initiated for the mega event, he would file a Public Interest Litigation in the Karnataka High Court.

NO HUNGER DURING LOCKDOWN

With a population that consists of 70 per cent slum dwellers, Pulakeshinagar Constituency needed all relief measures especially during the lockdown. And Akhanda Srinivas Murthy did not let them down. Waiting for government aid, he distributed food every day during the period.

He undertook the mission of 'Anna Dasoha' – free distribution of food from 27th March in all the 7 wards of the constituency. Without any differentiation, food was distributed three times a day. Breakfast for 8,000 people, lunch for 15,000 people and dinner for around 8,000 people was organised smoothly.

He soon realised that even the middle class was suffering and distributed ration kits containing 5 kgs of rice, 1 kg dal, 1 kg sugar, cooking oil and 2 kgs of wheat flour were distributed to over 12,000 people in all the wards. In the second stage kits were distributed to over 25,000 people. The legislator also lent a helping hand to Asha workers and pourakarmikas who worked throughout the pandemic.

He has supplied masks, sanitizers, and gloves to pourakarmikas. He also helped police personnel and auto drivers with ration kits.

"Lack of money should not lessen the celebrations of the children of the poor. We have been continuing distribution of ration Kits and it is not restricted to any one religion," he said.

RICH ENLIGHTENMENT TO THE POOR

Akhanda Srinivas Murthy's focus towards education has been immense and he has been stressing the need for proper teaching infrastructure in his constituency.

He has ensured that government schools are functioning according the guidelines. He has also constructed a Government Pre University College in S.K. Garden Ward. According to him, there was no government college for children of poor families. "With this college, students can get proper higher education. If the children of daily wage earners can receive quality education, it will help them join the mainstream," he stressed.

PULIKESHINAGAR GETS ITS SHARE OF JOY

While the pandemic turned every festivity into a toned down affair last year, this year's first major festival, Makara Sankranthi, was a cautious but joyful affair for the needy populace of Pulakeshinagar, thanks to MLA R. Akhanda Srinivas Murthy

There are no juberous assertions in the fact that gloom is still in the air, with the pandemic looming lagre. But there are a few occasions when the darkness is forgotten, and true happiness arises. Pulakeshinagar recently rejoiced in the joy of Makara Sankranthi festivity, when the MLA of their constituency decided to share some happiness with his people, especially those in need. And the constituency derived a peculiar delight.

The Assembly Constituency is home to people with diverse cultures and varied celebrations among people mostly belonging to the poorer segment of society. The legislator has been working throughout the year towards elevating the lives of people.

"There are people here who celebrate Christmas in December, Pongal and Sankranthi in January, apart from many other festivals throughout the year. We have always wished that a situation should never arise when people cannot celebrate their festivals as per their culture and tradition. The joy of sharing happiness is immense and I will continue the practice as long as I can," he said. For this Sankranthi/Pongal festival, renowned as the harvest festival, Akhanda Srinivas Murthy distributed ration kits to the poor members of the community.

The kits were distributed to over 20,000 families.

This is not the first time that the legislator has helped people, sharing joy with his constituency. He has constantly tried to help enhance the festival celebrations of the poor and daily wage workers. It has been a practice of the legislator to help people during major festivals including those of Hindu, Christian, Muslim and other communities. Every year, sufficient ration kits are distributed among Hindus during Sankranthi/Pongal, Christians during Christmas, Muslims during Ramzan, other joyous celebrations.

Kits containing rice, cooking oil, jaggery are distributed. Krishna Byre Gowda, legislator and who was a candidate for the Bengaluru North Lok Sabha Constituency, has joined hands with Akhanda Srinivas Murthy in this worthy cause.

"I am not doing this work from yesterday. I have been doing this continuously for.

Pulakeshinagar MLA R.Akhanda Srinivas Murthy distributed Pongal/ Sankranti gift kits to the poor in his Assembly constituency. Former Minister Krishne ByreGowda was the chief guest while Mahesh Mallu, Congress leader also participated in the distribution event.

The Development Mantra

No progress has ever taken place without a strong will, and history is replete with examples when individuals with good intentions have brought about mighty changes to the society. In the current times, shaking off authority and tradition, Akhanda Srinivas Murthy is a shining example of making pragmatic plans towards development. He has always been one step ahead in the development works of the constituency along with carrying out charity work. He has gained the appreciation for constructing concrete roads and drains on every street. He has also improved the condition of the main roads.

Srinivas Murthy has also been working towards providing proper drinking water system to the people of the constituency. Towards this initiative, he constructed a water tank. He has been striving relentlessly to help the people of the constituency to avail benefit of BBMP's Single House Scheme.

C'magaluru sees first cases under cow Act

In both cases, suspects were allegedly transporting cattle from Ranebennur to Mangaluru by goods carrier

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chikkamagaluru

CHIKKAMAGALURU district saw the first two cases to be booked under the Karnataka Prevention of Slaughter and Preservation of Cattle Act, 2020, which was passed recently. Both the instances were reported on January 8, and two FIRs were accordingly filed.

A man, identified as Shan, was the first person to be booked under the Act. Sringeri police arrested him for allegedly transporting cows to slaughterhouses.

According to a complaint lodged by Sringeri police constable Dhanpal Naik, five people arrived in an Omni van and approached the Tanikodu check-post at 4 am on January 8. They inquired if a vehicle carrying cows had passed through. When the constable said no, the van took a U-turn and drove towards Sringeri. At around 4.15 am, Naik heard a commotion and went with a home guard to investigate. He noticed a damaged goods carrier holding 15-20 cows, apart from some blood stains. There were only a few locals standing around the vehicle. Naik lodged a case against the vehicle's driver and owner for allegedly transporting the animals to a slaughterhouse, without any safety measures. Shan, the driver, was held.

Later, another incident was reported near Kaimane. Constable Kumar H stated in a complaint that as he was returning home at 7 am, a goods carrier was found haphazardly parked on the road, with its driver lying injured nearby. The latter was identified as Abid Ali, who told Kumar that four people had stopped his vehicle and attacked him. This vehicle was also found to be allegedly carrying cattle. Ali was shifted to hospital, but was also booked for transporting the animals.

Sources said the drivers were allegedly transporting the cows from Ranebennur near Davanagere, to Mangaluru. The two cases have been booked under Sections 5 (Restrictions on the Transport of Cattle) and 7 (Prohibition of Sale, Purchase or Disposal of Cattle from Slaughter) of Karnataka Prevention of Slaughter and Preservation of Cattle Act, 2020. Meanwhile, the attackers remain at large. SP MH Akshay was not available for comment, but ASP Shruti told TNIE that she had no information on the matter.

CBI books B'luru firm for bank fraud

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has registered a bank fraud case of over Rs 200 crore against Bengaluru-based Steel Hypermart India Private Limited and its directors for losses incurred by a consortium of banks led by the Indian Bank, the Central agency stated.

The CBI on Wednesday carried out searches in Bengaluru and Shoolagiri, Krishnagiri district of Tamil Nadu, at the premises of the company and the accused persons.

Besides the company, the CBI has named its directors Mahendra Kumar Singhi, Suman Mahendra Kumar Singhi and chartered accountant Mukesh Surana in its FIR, based on a complaint from the Indian Bank, the CBI spokesperson stated. The bank, in its complaint, has alleged that the company had availed credit facilities from the consortium of e-Vijaya Bank and Indian Bank between 2017 and 2019.

The account was declared a non-performing asset (NPA) in April 2019 and subsequently tagged as fraud in November that year, said the CBI officer. The fraud resulted in the loss of Rs 168.39 crore to Indian Bank and Rs 31.99 crore to e-Vijaya Bank (now Bank of Baroda), he added.

"It was further alleged that the borrower company in order to avail higher working capital limits from the banks, had inflated its turnover, made purchase transactions with the related/sister concerns, inflated receivables, diverted funds within the related/sister concerns, submitted false/fudged accounts/statements and siphoned off the banks funds, thereby causing loss to the said banks," he said.

HC seeks details of infra provided to CEN stations

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has sought the details of infrastructure provided to the CEN (Cyber Crime, Economic and Narcotics) police stations in Bengaluru.

A division bench of Chief Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum passed the order after issuing a notice to the state government. The bench was hearing a public interest litigation filed by Sudha Katwa, advocate. Aggrieved by the alleged poor functioning of eight CEN police stations in Bengaluru due to shortage of technical staff, skilled police and resources, the petitioner stated that she had visited those stations along with her colleague for a reality check and found it to be true.

Though a representation was submitted to the respondent-authorities such as the Chief Secretary, the Director General and Inspector General of Police and the Commissioner of Police to take corrective measures immediately, no steps were taken by them, the petitioner claimed. Hence, she has approached the HC with the PIL, she said.

The petitioner contended that the DG and IGP submitted a proposal to the state government in October 2019 to set up CEN police stations and provide a total 240 staffers – 30 for each police station in each sub division. In response to this, the government in December 2019 sanctioned eight stations within the limits of Commissioner of Police and also fixed staff strength in respect of each station totalling 56, instead of 240.

Realtor murdered, police hunt for suspect

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

A 55-year-old realtor was hacked to death on Tuesday, in Begur police station limits. The deceased has been identified as Madhava Reddy, a resident of Wellington Paradise Layout.

Police said that Reddy had developed a residential layout and had sold a plot to the father of the accused, Manohar. However, the buyer had only paid the advance and had not made any further payments.

Reddy was in contact with Manohar, and was demanding that he make the payment. This had led to a serious fight between them.

"Reddy had asked Manohar to come near his house to discuss the same and the latter had gone there in the evening. During the discussion, there was a heated argument between the two, and Manohar, who had brought a machete, attacked Reddy with it, before escaping. Reddy was rushed to a nearby hospital by on-lookers, but he was declared brought dead," the police said.

The Begur police, who have registered a murder case, are on the lookout for Manohar.

YOUTH MURDERED

In a murder reported in Seshadripuram police station limits, an unidentified youth aged around 25 years was found murdered near Railway Platform Road, on Tuesday night. Police said that passersby, who noticed the body, alerted police. "The assailants have smashed the youth's head and private parts with a boulder and murdered him. Efforts are on to establish the youth's identity and trace the killers," the police added.

MAN SLITS NIECE'S THROAT

Chikkaballapura: Superstition claimed the life of a 5-year-old mentally and physically challenged girl at Angarekanahalli village. Her uncle allegedly murdered her as he considered her inauspicious. According to Chikkaballapura SP Mithun Kumar, the incident was reported on Tuesday evening. Giving details of the heinous crime, he said Shankar was unhappy over the birth of a mentally and physically challenged girl to his older brother. He had been insisting that his brother abandon the baby ever since she was born. Things became so bad that the elder brother had sent Shankar out of the house for over a year. However, he recently joined the family on the condition that he would not say a word about the child. On Tuesday, when the girl hugged him out of love, Shankar allegedly slit the child's throat with a knife killing her.

POACHERS BEWARE!

More forest officers may get phone-tapping rights

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka forest department and the state police are holding talks to give equal powers to forest officials to track call records of junior staffers so that forest offence cases can be solved. Call Data Records proved successful in the recent tiger shot case in Nagarahole.

However, this potent ammunition, due for renewal, has drawn criticism from experts and conservationists.

In Karnataka, the home secretary gave the power to the directors of Nagarahole and BRT Tiger Reserve, apart from the Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forests vigilance and wildlife, to seek and receive CDRs, subscriber detail records (SDRs) and tower location details (TLD) for a period of one year (July 2015 to June 2016). This raises questions as Rule 11 of Information Technology Rules, 2009, permits monitoring only for 60 days with renewal not exceeding 180 days. The latest renewal was till June 2020.

"Now since it is again to be renewed, we held a meeting with the police department and have demanded that the provision be given to officials in all tiger reserves and to all CCFs so that forest offence cases can be solved. CDR proved successful in the recent tiger shot case in Nagarahole. But the same could not be done in the case of Sirsi, as the official did not have the ability," Sanjai Mohan, Principal Chief Conservator of Forests, told TNIE.

Experts point out that phone tapping and accessing phone records is an extremely sensitive subject as it infringes on the fundamental right to privacy guaranteed to all citizens under Article 19 of the Constitution. In 1988, a major phone tapping issue even led to the resignation of the then chief minister. Thus strict controls exist on who can authorize phone tapping or access call data records and TLD from telecom service providers and under what specific circumstances.

Some conservationists questioned the legality of the order. They pointed out: "Though it is stated that the notification is issued based on powers under the Information Technology Rules, 2009, the legality of this is highly suspect. In a written reply to the Lok Sabha in February, 2014, the Central government while admitting that incidents of unauthorised electronic surveillance have been reported from states, it clarified that only nine central agencies including CBI, IB, DRI, NIA and DGP at the state level are the authorised law enforcement agencies for lawful interception as per various applicable laws and rules."

"The IT Act only provides for monitoring to ensure the security and integrity of India, friendly relations with foreign states, public order etc. Foresters are not even remotely connected with these security issues and empowering them with such draconian powers without due application of mind is extremely worrisome," they said.

Cinemas back in Kerala

Kochi: Though there were not many wild celebrations like pre-Covid times, the fans of actor Vijay and movie buffs all over the state welcomed the reopening of cinema halls on Wednesday. Almost all shows of 'Master', which was screened in theatres of Kerala after a Covid-induced gap of 309 days, were houseful, that is the maximum of 50 per cent of actual capacity allowed. The theatres were allowing only people who had pre-booked and they were being screened at the entrance.

FESTIVALS are incomplete in Tamil Nadu without films. Big-ticket releases of Kollywood superstars are usually timed to coincide with Deepavali or Pongal. This year, however, with the Covid playing the supervillain in the real world, filmmakers struggled to get their movies out to the audience. Actor Vijay's Master, which released on Wednesday, was billed as the Messiah film that would bring the audience back to theatres, despite concerns of a fresh spike in Covid cases.

Though the State government had to go back on its decision to allow 100 per cent seating in theatres, the excitement of the audience remained intact. All eyes were on January 13. Yours truly managed to get a seat for the prized FDFS show (4AM) through some contacts. Though sceptical about the COVID safety measures being followed, the sights at Kamala theatre early in the morning were encouraging. It was a pleasant surprise to see hundreds of people wearing masks and maintaining social distancing, well as much as was possible. It was interesting to note that the usual celebrations in the form of band music, crackers and paal abishegams were all done away with, but replaced instead with face masks that bore the Master print.

Dhilip, an IT professional from Ramapuram, said that only Vijay could have made him step into a theatre for the first time this pandemic. "This is my first time in a theatre in a year. I was so excited to watch the show that I didn't get a wink of sleep last night," said the self-confessed Vijay fanatic, who was pleased that the theatre management did its best to enforce rules and ensure the safety of their patrons. "There is space between seats and hand sanitisers are in place," he noted.

The absence of the mandatory screaming fans upon entering the hall made me wonder whether the pandemic had drained our audience's energy. A wild shout from a patron left the theatre in splits: "Unakaaga corona ward la irundhu vandhu iruken thalaivaa!" The social distancing, which was followed for a while, did go for a toss when the much-hyped Vaathi Coming song began playing. Fans rushed in front of the screen and transformed the elevated space into a dance floor. I observed with mixed emotions, but have to admit it was a relief that they didn't throw their masks in the air.

The situation was much worse in districts and smaller cities. In Tiruchy, several theatres violated the 50 per cent occupancy rule. Theaters such as LA Maris, LA Sona Mina, Ramba theatre, Venkatesa cinemas saw serpentine queues and massive celebrations from 4 am. "I saw the 8 am show and it was fully occupied. I thought it would be 50% and booked the tickets. Most people weren't wearing masks. The movie was great though," said a fan who watched the movie.

Tamil Nadu Film Exhibitors Association president 'Sakthi' M Subramaniam said there was a "huge response" for the movie. In western Tamil Nadu, including Coimbatore, Tirupur, and Erode districts, 89 screens released the movie, he added.

"I believe the movie revived the people's interest in visiting theatres," he added.

4.3 lakh Covishield vials reach Kerala

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @T'Puram/Kochi

RAISING hopes of people in the fight against Covid-19, the first batch of Covishield vaccine arrived in the state on Wednesday. The state has started distributing the 4,33,500 doses of vaccine sent from the Serum Institute of India.

The first consignment flights carrying 1.80 lakh and 1.19 lakh doses meant for Kochi and Kozhikode, respectively, arrived at Cochin International Airport around 10.45am. In the evening, the second consignment arrived at Thiruvananthapuram airport carrying 1.34 lakh doses. As many as 1,100 doses from Kozhikode's share will be distributed in Mahe.

The consignments were first taken to the regional vaccine stores in Thiruvananthapuram, Ernakulam and Kozhikode.

"The vaccine vials have been distributed to the vaccine stores in all districts. The distribution to 133 centres will take place based on the requirement," said Health Minister K K Shailaja. The vaccine will be administered at all these centres on Saturday. As many as 12 vaccination centres have been set up in Ernakulam, while Thiruvananthapuram and Kozhikode have 11 each and remaining districts nine each. Arrangements have been made to vaccinate 100 persons in each centre on the launch day. Each centre will have a waiting area, vaccination room and observation room.

Meanwhile, the number of people registered to take vaccine has increased to 3,68,866 – 1,73,253 from the government and 1,95,613 from the private sectors.

According to health officials in Ernakulam, 15 boxes, each with 12,000 doses, have been brought to the regional store. "The doses to the five districts including Palakkad, Thrissur, Idukki and Kottayam will be distributed on Thursday," said a health official. During the first phase, Ernakulam district will vaccinate 73,000 health workers.

DISQUIET OVER SC'S SOLUTION TO DEAL WITH FARM LAWS

Even when the Supreme Court had first suggested to the Centre if it could consider putting the three contentious farm sector reform laws in abeyance, many had seen it as judicial activism and stepping into the executive's domain in matters of governance, policymaking and legislative duties. Their argument was the court should not have gone beyond sitting in judgment over the constitutionality of the laws. During the last round of talks on January 8 between the protesting farm unions and the government, the Centre had itself indicated it was in favour of letting the court intervene, as both sides had refused to yield on repealing the laws. When the hearing resumed on Monday, the Centre got an earful from the Bench for shoddy handling of talks, and the court brushed away the government's objections on setting up the panel. The next day, the Centre quietly accepted the Supreme Court's order staying the laws, making analysts wonder if the whole exercise was scripted. What was indeed curious was the composition of the committee, as at least three members, if not all four, are openly in favour of the farm laws. Remember, when the SC first tossed the idea of a panel, Chief Justice of India S A Bobde had said it could include experts like Magsaysay award winner P Sainath, which suggested the committee would be balanced, as he is a Left intellectual. Not surprisingly, the farmers have rejected the committee.

Going forward, the farmers, too, need to show some flexibility. There is little doubt the laws were passed with hardly any consultation and debate. There is also little doubt that contract farming can be exploitative unless there are adequate safeguards. But the farm sector is indeed stagnating, including in Punjab and Haryana. Once the foodgrain bowl of India, Punjab is no longer the top wheat-producing state, having yielded that position to Madhya Pradesh. The incomes of farmers elsewhere are rising faster too. When the apex court took cognisance of the matter, farmers could have presented their case before it effectively instead of staying away, and hopefully prevailed on the Bench to pick a neutral panel. Their no-show could hurt their cause.

BIG TECH BACK UNDER GLARE

With just days to go before his termends, US President Donald Trump was stripped last week of his favourite tools—access to his social media accounts—through which he had spread misinformation, sacked officials, set foreign policy and, eventually, incited violence. While Facebook indefinitely suspended the President's account, Twitter, to which he was uncommonly attached, permanently suspended his account. Twitter has since started a purge of QAnon, neo-Nazi and white supremacist accounts, removing 70,000 of them over the past week. Meanwhile, Google, Apple and Amazon have deplatformed Parler, a social media site favoured by the alt-right.

The companies acted in the aftermath of an attack on the US Capitol by Trump supporters on January 6, the most significant breach of the complex since 1814 when the British captured and set fire to the building. However, the action is too little, too late. Both Twitter and Facebook have faced calls to enforce community standards against hate speech and abuse for years, to little effect. The companies had also resisted enforcing standards on Trump (and elected officials) on the ground of 'public interest'. When they finally acted, it was not only violence Trump had incited in an attempt to overturn the results of the elections but also intense pressure from employees that tipped the balance. That the White House, Senate and Congress will now be controlled by Democrats no doubt made the decision easier.

Why then have some—including German Chancellor Angela Merkel—expressed concern over the action? They fear, and rightfully so, the concentration of such vast power in the hands of a few billionaires, acting not in accordance with any laws but with arbitrary self-evolved, sometimes opaque standards. This power, that can silence Nazis and bullies, can also be used to silence dissidents, human rights activists and others deemed as problems to a state. States and users must be vigilant to the dangers this poses to freedom and democracy, and find ways to check, if not dilute, these powers through policy and innovation.

Such cyber attacks are difficult to guard against and can bring a country to its knees by attacking its key functions and biggest companies. India should be prepared

SUPPLY CHAIN VIRUSES, THE NEW FACE OF CYBER WARFARE

PROSENJIT DATTA

Senior business journalist

AMIT BANDRE

Should India start worrying about "supply chain" viruses and hackers? Should a couple of hacking exploits that affected the US government and, perhaps, the government of Vietnam set off alarm bells in India? Yes, because in an increasingly digital and connected world, this could be the new face of cyber warfare.

In the last week of 2020, news came in that Vietnam had been found to be the target of a sophisticated supply chain cyber attack. A group of hackers had managed to compromise many Vietnamese private companies and government departments by compromising the Vietnam Government Certification Agency (VGCA). This department is responsible for issuing digital certificates that would be used for electronically signing documents. While the malware—a Trojan called PhantomNet—that was inserted wasn't very complex, it served as a wireframe for other more potent viruses.

Before that, in the second week of December, the technology world was rocked by the news of a "supply chain" cyber attack that had managed to infiltrate the networks and systems of multiple US government departments, tech majors like Microsoft and Cisco, and hundreds of big and small companies around the world working in sensitive areas. The implications of the hack and the amount of information the hackers managed to get are still being worked out.

Though the US government officials or the technology companies did not name anyone, the finger of suspicion pointed towards a Russian group of hackers called CozyBear, acting with state support. It was a highly sophisticated indirect attack. These are termed "supply chain" cyber attacks because instead of attacking a target, the hackers rely on infecting one of its suppliers instead to gain access.

CozyBear exploited a vulnerability and attached a malicious code in the software update that the well-known Texas-based IT management company SolarWinds was preparing to roll out for clients. The company counts Microsoft, Deloitte, Nvidia, Cisco and many other global leaders as its clients. The attack was initiated as early as March, when the hackers managed to insert their code into the SolarWinds software update.

When the SolarWinds update was implemented by its clients, the code got access to parts of their networks as well. The hackers were exceedingly patient and did nothing for several months. After that, they slowly started stealing some data, taking care to avoid detection. It was almost by accident that the exploit came to light in December when an employee in the US cyber security firm FireEye realised that someone had logged into the company VPN using his credentials. This led to a search for the intruder, which in turn made the company realise that the hackers had got access when it implemented the SolarWinds' Orion update.

In 2020, apart from the SolarWinds and VGCA attacks, three other supply chain hacking cases had been detected. In two cases, China was involved. One Chinese bank apparently forced foreign companies operating in the country to install a backdoor tax software toolkit. In the second case, Chinese hackers had managed to compromise the update mechanism of a chat app used by Mongolian government agencies. The fifth case of the year was a North Korean attack that delivered malware to South Korean users.

In 2020, hackers attached a malicious code in the software update that SolarWinds was preparing to roll out for clients. The company counts Microsoft, Deloitte, Nvidia, Cisco and many other global leaders as its clients

Supply chain attacks are not new and have been around for several years. Earlier, most hackers preferred to attack their target companies directly. However, as big companies beefed up their cyber security measures, such attacks could be quickly detected and counter measures taken. Unlike direct attacks, supply chain hackers are relatively difficult to guard against. The US government cyber defense system for example could not detect the CozyBear attack because it came in via a trusted source, SolarWinds, which it had no reason to suspect of any malicious intent.

The bigger danger though that is cropping up is of motive. In the past, many big hacking exploits were looking to make money. This typically meant inserting ransomware or the stealing of credit card and bank details or other data. Occasionally, hackers attacked companies because they felt these were evil and needed to be punished.

But increasingly, government to government or government-sponsored attacks on rivals are gaining currency. Instead of asking for money, hackers are instead slowly gathering critical information, compromising data and inserting more malicious and complex codes that can be used one day to paralyse entire government departments or private companies and their clients, thus spreading chaos. This is the new digital warfare that seeks to bring a country to its knees by attacking its key functions and biggest companies instead of attacking it through conventional means.

As in the case of fishing stories, in hacking too, it is not the ones that are caught that are important. It is the ones that got away undetected that have the potential to do most harm.

Among the countries particularly known for using hacking attacks at the government level are Russia, China and North Korea, as well as a few East European countries.

For India therefore, the threat from China or Pakistan may not come from the areas it is keeping an eye on—but in the form of a cyber attack that is hard to detect and therefore counter. This is the new threat that India needs to be worried about.

HOW WHATSAPP DATA HELPS FACEBOOK AND HURTS YOU

ABRAHAM C MATHEWS

A Delhi-based advocate

In its latest privacy policy that comes into effect next month, WhatsApp Messenger says "you have the right to access, rectify, port, and erase your information, as well as the right to restrict and object to certain processing of your information".

But don't get too excited. This is from the policy as it applies in Europe, where the General Data Protection Regulations of the European Union has stringent penalties for violation of user privacy. In India, one has no such option. WhatsApp is part of the $750 billion tech giant Facebook, Inc. headquartered in the US.

WhatsApp has now made it mandatory to agree to user data being shared with other group companies (including popular social media platforms Facebook and Instagram) if one is to use the service after February 8. But what everybody seems to be missing is that it was already sharing the data. The biggest difference from the existing policy (effective since July 2020) is that, so far, WhatsApp gave users the choice to opt out of their data being shared with other Facebook companies. However, it is highly likely that users did not know about this choice that was buried deep in the policy, and didn't exercise the option within the stipulated 30 days. So data was always being shared. The new policy does not worsen the risk.

What being part of Facebook entails: In 2019, Facebook made around $70 million in revenue, out of which $69 million was advertising revenue. Essentially, Facebook collects data such as its users' lifestyle, social circle, political inclinations and so on. These are then 'sold' to advertisers, who can target the users based on their behavioural patterns and inclinations. Ads for a new cosmetic brand could be shown to users who tend to experiment. Other users faithful to another brand could be shown articles trashing that brand, or suggesting that it is always good to try alternatives (rather than merely being shown the new brand). During election season, if one tends to be a reluctant supporter of a politician, they might see articles on how the opposing candidate shares many of their views and is worth a shot. Alternately, articles negatively portraying a particular candidate may be hidden from their view.

In 2014, when Facebook, Inc. purchased WhatsApp for an eye-popping $19 billion, WhatsApp's policy had explicitly stated that it will not sell advertisements, or monetise user information in any way; 2016 was when Facebook began collecting user data. Now, to be clear, Facebook still claims that the chats are encrypted end-to-end, meaning it cannot read the content of your chats. WhatsApp has clarified publicly on Tuesday that it does not keep logs of who everyone is messaging or calling, see your shared location, or share your contacts. However, a reading of the actual privacy policy would suggest otherwise. It keeps a record of how you interact with others using WhatsApp, and the time, frequency and duration of your activities. It also keeps a record of your phone number, location (if you have enabled it), your phone address book and so on.

How does collecting this information help the Facebook ecosystem? To use an analogy, Facebook and Instagram are the apps where people behave as if at a public place. WhatsApp, on the other hand, is where people communicate as if in the privacy of their homes. You meet on Facebook, exchange numbers and take the conversation to WhatsApp. Tracking WhatsApp usage gives Facebook a vastly better idea of the strength of relationships between their users. Juxtaposed with other information Facebook already knows about the person, this can give insight into aspects of your life that you hide from even one's closest friends, even without reading your chats.

With a legislature in denial and courts indifferent, tech companies have a free rein to unilaterally impose anti-competitive terms on users

All of this is being done without any significant protection offered to users (such as an undertaking to protect from unauthorised data use from third parties, or being notified in case of a data breach—both specifically offered to users of 'WhatsApp for Business'). It is tempting to shrug this very unequal relationship as the cost of availing a free service.

That argument is completely misplaced though. A large number of WhatsApp's users were on board even at the time of the Facebook deal. In other words, the massive user base that Facebook is monetising signed on to the platform under a completely different set of rules. To Facebook, these users are 'captive consumers', giving the company a 'dominant position', which competition law prohibits them from abusing.

Interestingly, when the deal was struck, Facebook claimed in filings with the European Union authorities that it was not possible to automatically match users accounts of the two services, but went on to do precisely that, leading to a fine of $122 billion by the European anti-trust regulator (small change, one might argue), and greater protections for European users .

Even more curious is the fate of a case pending in the Supreme Court regarding sharing of data between the two services. In March 2017, a five-judge Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court directed that the case be listed for interim orders on whether the data should be barred from being shared. The government had resisted interference, arguing that a law for protection of personal data was imminent, which would address these concerns. In the four years since, neither has the case been heard, nor the much-awaited law moved past political impasse.

The wait could not be costlier. Every day more and more Indians share data with sundry apps that process the data without any accountability. We grant them permissions—but a large swathe of our population cannot read a document of legalese, much less understand its import. The data is then used to allow faceless entities manipulate our behaviour and choices—including undermining democracy, at times.

SC decision welcome

Considering the impasse in the talks between the Centre and farmers' unions, the decision taken by the Supreme Court to put the farm laws on hold for the time being is welcome. The court's intervention has given the ruling dispensation an opportunity to think through the issue and arrive at a solution acceptable to both sides.

C Ghanshyam, Visakhapatnam

Hardened stances

The hardened stances of the farmers' unions raises many questions in the minds of the public. They have agreed to the SC's intervention, but blaming the committee to be pro-government even before the deliberations begin shows their preconceived notions on the issue.

R Sridharan, Chennai

Why not cooperate?

It is sad that the farmers' unions have expressed their unwillingness to participate in the deliberation with the committee. The court wants the committee to give its recommendations after hearing the views of all the stakeholders, which the unions don't seem to be ready for.

Haribandhu Panigrahi, Tarbha

Verdict encourages protests

Unfortunately, the apex court's verdict on the farm laws has created a dangerous precedent as it encourages protests and court cases. Instead of resolving the standoff, the verdict has widened the scope of dirty politics. Let it be the purview of the government and not the SC to rule the country.

O Prasada Rao, Hyderabad

No access to online classes

This is with reference to Need to address digital divide in Budget (Jan 13). With the introduction of the NEP and with schools and colleges going online, it is not right that many students are found without means to access classes. The Budget must come up with schemes for low-cost tablets or laptops to help the economically weaker section of society.

E Ravi Varma Raja, Ennakkad

Give importance in Budget

Online education is pivotal during Covid and ideas to make it more accessible to everyone in the nation are pragmatic. This should be given more importance in the upcoming Budget. The governments should find a way to provide gadgets to students who struggle financially.

Rejoy Suresh, email

Govt should nab culprits

This is with reference to Temple attacks in AP a cause for concern (Jan 13). The temple imbroglio in Andhra Pradesh should not be allowed to escalate into a communal weapon in the Tirupati bypolls. The chief minister should work extra hard to nab the culprits. This should not end in a petty squabble among the YSRCP, TDP and BJP.

K Nehru Patnaik, Visakhapatnam

Desecration shocking

The temple vandalism in Andhra is quite shocking. In the words of Dr Radhakrishnan, religion is the behaviour, not the belief. All religions, if they are tolerated, lead mankind to happiness and peace. Religion is nothing but the love of man and God.

R Pichumani, Kumbakonam

RBI estimate worrying

This is with reference to Budgetary provisions necessary to tackle ballooning bad loans (Jan 13). The RBI's estimate that the gross NPA ratio of our banks may touch 16.2% by September 2021 is worrying.

Cicily Thomas, Muvattupuzha

Unlikely cricket heroes

India's monumental draw in the Sydney Test has given us many unlikely heroes who collectively outthought and outplayed the Australians. Despite batting with great pain, both Hanuma Vihari and R Ashwin showed enough grit to weather the hostile bowling attack. This is what separates Test cricket from the other two formats of the game.

No discrimination in allocation of vaccines to any state, says Centre

Statement comes after Maharashtra minister claims state got less than its required quota

SUMI SUKANYA DUTTA @ New Delhi

AMID accusations by some states that they have received inadequate supply of vaccines for the immunisation drive beginning Saturday, the Centre on Wednesday asserted that it has distributed stocks in proportion to healthcare workers in each state.

"Full initial procurement amount of 1.65 crore doses of Covishield and Covaxin have been allocated to all states in proportion of health care workers database," said the Union health ministry. "Therefore, there is no question of discrimination against any state in allocation of vaccine doses."

The clarification comes after Maharashtra health minister Rajesh Tope alleged that the state received 9.83 lakh of doses even though it had sent a database of 17.5 lakh healthcare workers in the state.

For the first phase of the vaccination, the Centre has procured 1.1 crore doses of Covishield and 55 lakh doses of Covaxin from Bharat Biotech.

"This is the initial lot of supply of vaccine doses and would be continuously replenished in the weeks to come. Therefore, any apprehension being expressed on account of deficient supply is totally baseless and unfounded," the Centre said.

It added that the states were advised to organise vaccination sessions taking into account 10 % reserve or wastage doses and average of 100 vaccinations per session per day. Any undue haste by states to organise unreasonable numbers of vaccination per site per day is not advisable, said the ministry.

Though the government has not made public details of beneficiaries to be vaccinated on the first day or the number of vaccination centres, sources said there are nearly 3,000 centres. "This number was 5,000 initially but following our request that the process should begin in a graded and cautious manner with limited vaccinations, states have reduced the number and it now stands a little over 2,900," a senior official told this newspaper.

Did Covid vaccination defer polio national immunisation schedule?

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE national polio immunisation programme has been deferred "till further notice" by the Union health ministry as it looks to launch the country-wide Covid vaccination drive on Saturday.

The polio immunisation programme was set to begin from January 17.

The decision was communicated to the states in a letter dated January 9, the same day when the government announced that the first inoculations against Covid would begin on January 16.

The letter to states, however, does not mention the reason for cancelling the polio drive, and only cites "unforeseen circumstances" for its decision.

Many states though are yet to receive a copy of the circular, but the officials cited the ministry's order for cancelling arrangements made to give pulse polio drops to millions of children over three days starting January 17.

In fact, Union health minister Harsh Vardhan had said that the polio immunisation will be carried out on January 17, adding that the vaccination is essential to ensure that India maintains overall immunity levels against polio.

The development also comes even as the Union government has been insisting that the coronavirus inoculation exercise — set to cover over 3 crore health and frontline workers in phase 1 — should not affect routine vaccination programmes in the country.

"We have to also ensure that routine vaccinations for other diseases do not get affected because of Covid vaccinations," Prime Minister Narendra Modi had said on Monday following his meeting with chief ministers called to discuss the details of the "world's largest" exercise of its kind.

A similar plea was also made by Union health secretary Rajesh Bhushan during the briefing on Covid pandemic response on Tuesday.

Process to give anti-Covid jabs should not "compromise existing healthcare services, especially national programmes and primary healthcare," he had said.

India's pulse polio drive covers over 172 million children who are given oral doses to protect them against the infectious disease caused by the poliovirus.

Farmer union leaders burn copies of the new agricultural reform laws in a Lohri bonfire on Delhi's Singhu border | PARVEEN NEGI

Flames of protest: 1L copies of farm laws turn into ashes

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

DESPITE the Supreme Court suspending the implementation of the farm laws, the farmers are in no mood to scale down their protests. On Wednesday, they burnt over one lakh copies of the three legislations at the agitation sites on Delhi border as well as in villages across Punjab on the festival of Lohri as a mark of protest.

Several bonfires were lit at the Singhu, Tirki and Ghazipur borders as farmers raised slogans, burnt copies of the laws, sang songs of resistance and hope and prayed for the success of their mission.

Farmer leaders including Balbir Singh Rajewal, Darshan Pal, Gurnam Singh Chaduni, Harinder Singh Lakhowal, Yogendra Yadav and others threw copies of the farm laws in the bonfire lit on the premises of the Kisan Andolan office at Singhu border.

Sukhdev Singh, general secretary of the Bharatiya Kisan Union (Ekta-Ughrahan), said, "We celebrated Lohri at various places on the Delhi borders and in more than 1,600 villages across 22 districts of Punjab by burning the copies of the three 'black laws' as these are our death warrants. It is estimated that about one lakh copies of these laws were burnt. Marches were also taken out on the occasion."

The All India Kisan Sangarsh Coordination Committee claimed that farmers burnt copies of the laws at more than 20,000 spots all over the country. It also appealed to all districts within 300 km of Delhi to mobilise tractors for the protest parade on Republic Day.

The government, meanwhile, asked the protesting farmer unions to take part in the proceedings of the panel appointed by Supreme Court even as uncertainly prevailed over the fate of the ninth round of talks on January 15. "...Nothing is going to happen if the copies of the laws are burnt. They should keep their views before the impartial committee set up by the court," junior agriculture minister Kailash Choudhary said. "Don't you think burning copies of the laws is disrespecting Parliament?"

The Bar Council of India also urged the farmers to respect the judiciary and suspend the agitation. A released issued by the BCI chairperson also condemned the "irresponsible comments made by some politicians against the apex court".

Modi hails PM Fasal Bima Yojana

New Delhi: Prime Minister Narendra Modi hailed the PM Fasal Bima Yojana, which has completed five years, saying it's an important initiative to secure the farmers from the vagaries of nature. "An important initiative to secure hardworking farmers from the vagaries of nature, PM Fasal Bima Yojana has completes five years today. The Yojana has increased coverage, mitigated risk and benefitted crores of farmers. I congratulate all beneficiaries of the scheme," Modi said in a series of tweets. The PM Fasal Bima Yojana has been one of the key initiatives of the Central government to extend compensation benefits to the farmers in the events of the crop damage.

Govt misled SC on farm laws: Cong

NEW DELHI: The Centre's affidavit in the apex court claiming that it held consultations before bringing in the three farm laws is an attempt to prevaricate, distort, misrepresent and mislead the court and the nation, the Congress said.

Citing the reply of RTI query filed by activist Anjali Bhardwaj, the Congress said the Agriculture ministry responded that it does not have any record of any pre-legislative consultations related to the contentious farm laws. Congress spokesperson Abhishek Singhvi said the government's affidavit is at variance to the RTI reply.

"The government, in its affidavit, said it is being filed for the purpose of dispelling the erroneous notion that the protesters have peddled that the Central government and Parliament never had any consultative process or examination of issues by any Committee before passing of the laws in question," he said.

Singhvi added that the government quotes circulating the Draft Model Acts in 2003 and 2017 to the States among other things as consultative process but the content of such model laws was also different from the current three enactments. "It is clear that there are serious attempts at distortion, misrepresentation and misleading of the nation, the honourable court and all stakeholders...." ENS

'ADULTERY CANNOT BE DECRIMINALISED FOR FORCES'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

TWO years after the Supreme Court ruling that scrapped Section 497 of the IPC that defined adultery as a criminal offence, the government approached the top court saying its judgment decriminalising adultery should not apply to the armed forces.

The defence ministry made this submission while referring to the September 2018 judgment, where a five-judge Constitution bench led by the then CJI Dipak Misra scrapped Section 497 of the IPC as a criminal offence.

A bench headed by Justice R F Nariman, who was also part of the 2018 bench, took up the application and asked Attorney General KK Venugopal why a clarification was needed now.

Venugopal contended that the 2018 judgment did not take into account the Army, the Navy, and the IAF Acts. "In the Army Act, there is a provision where the officer can be court-martialled."

The Attorney General was referring to those sections under laws governing the Army, the Navy and the Air Force that provide for criminal and disciplinary action against officers found to have indulged in unbecoming conduct.

Since the 2018 judgment was rendered by a five-judge bench, Justice Nariman said the clarification should come from a bench of the same strength. The top court then went on to issue notice in the matter and referred it to a Constitution bench.

The ministry described its plea as a clarification application and added that the judgment may cause instability within the applicant's services.

The application, which the ministry said was bonafide and filed in the interest of justice, sought to note that many a time officers are posted at borders or in far-flung areas, forced to stay away from their families. If its plea is not allowed, then the petitioner will suffer irreparable loss and injury, the ministry added.

Under service rules, the government pointed out, security personnel can be cashiered from service on ground of unbecoming conduct for committing adultery with a colleague's wife. It also asserted the need to retain adultery as a form of misconduct in the forces. "Discipline is the bedrock of the work culture in defence services and an essential ingredient for combat operations," he said.

'India is net security provider in Indo-Pacific'

NEW DELHI: The US has declassified its Strategic Framework for the Indo-Pacific in which it has termed India as the net provider of security in the region.

The document also has an objective to 'solidify an enduring strategic partnership with India' which Washington feels is underpinned by a strong Indian military able to effectively collaborate with the US'.

The declassified document also suggests offering assistance to India through diplomatic, intelligence and military channels to address 'continental challenges such as border issues with China and access to water of rivers, which are facing diversions by China.

It also spells out the US' focus of increasing connectivity by cooperating with India , Japan to 'help finance projects that enhance regional connectivity'. ENS

BJP confident of Dushyant remaining in Harayna govt

MANISH ANAND @ New Delhi

THE BJP appears confident that the alliance government in Haryana will come out unscathed from the farmers' agitation on account of the political compulsion of Deputy CM Dushyant Chautala.

Giving confidence to the BJP is that the Dushyant Chautala-led Janata Jannayak Party (JJP) is faced with the challenge to retain its Jat support base, which is seen increasingly shifting to the Congress. Even as Khattar and the BJP leaders haven't been able to cut ice with the agitating farmers, the party believes that there's not much of support for the agitation from Haryana.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah had met CM Manohar Lal Khattar and Dushyant at North Block on Tuesday in the backdrop of the JJP MLAs growing vocal against the farm laws.

"The JJP MLAs are under pressure from its Jat voters. In the Rohtak-Sonipat region, former Haryana CM Bhupinder Hooda has been able to wean away the Jats. The farm agitation is just incidental, as the Jats are shifting away from the JJP to the Congress," a party insider said.

> The JJP MLAs are under pressure from its Jat voters. In Rohtak-Sonipat region, former Haryana CM Bhupinder Hooda has been able to wean away the Jats
> BJP insider

With the JJP and the Congress largely competing for the Jat votes, the BJP leaders claim Dushyant has more stakes in ensuring that the alliance government lasts full term.

"The JJP had far more anti-BJP posturing during the Haryana poll campaign, and the post-poll change of stance by Dushyant to forge an alliance with the BJP is putting pressure on him to retain his votes among the Jats," said a BJP functionary.

Doval reaches Afghanistan, discusses strategic issues with Kabul leadership

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

NATIONAL Security Advisor Ajit Doval on Wednesday made an unannounced visit to Kabul where he met top leaders, including Afghanistan President Ashraf Ghani.

According to the Afghan National Security Council, Doval also met his counterpart Jamdullah Mohib and had discussions on strategic mutual interest, including cooperation on efforts to counter terrorism and build peace.

Doval also met Abdullah Abdullah, chairman of the high council for national reconciliation. "Pleased to welcome HE Ajit Doval. We exchanged views on the Peace Process, the beginning of 2nd round of talks, & the role of India in establishing peace in AFG (sic)," Abdullah tweeted.

Afghan charge d'affaires Tahir Qadiry said the discussions focused on countering terrorism and strengthening a regional consensus on the intra-Afghan peace dialogue.

'Thiruvalluvar quotes show PM cares for Tamils'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

WHEN it comes to quoting words of wisdom, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has often quoted from the works of the celebrated Tamil poet-philosopher Thiruvalluvar. Be it his addresses to the nation from the ramparts of the Red Fort, to the jawans in Ladakh, or as recently as the speech on the 16th Pravasi Diwas, Modi has looked to Thirukkural by the poet for contextualising his messages.

BJP leader Khushbu Sundar told this newspaper that while there are several poets in various languages, the PM has shown a preference for Tamil and Thiruvalluvar. "The Opposition may keep saying that the Prime Minister hasn't given support to Tamil Nadu, but the fact that he has so richly been quoting saint Thiruvalluvar in important addresses clearly shows that he cares for the Tamil language and the people of the state. The Opposition can say anything for the sake of politics," Sundar said.

BJP leaders assert that Modi's bond with Thirukkural goes deep in the past. "What PM Modi admires about the Kural is that it is expansive and diverse. It is practical and inspiring. It contains simple and relatable subjects. Through the Kural, PM Modi has given the world a glimpse of what Indianness is about," said a senior BJP functionary.

Stressing that Tamil Nadu has held a special place for the PM, Sundar said Modi hosted Chinese President Xi Jinping in Mahabalipuram.

On July 3, 2020, Modi had in Ladakh quoted the words of Thiruvalluvar to give the world a glimpse of what the Army is. He had quoted Thiruvalluvar, to say "valour, honour, the tradition of dignified behaviour and credibility are the four qualities that are the reflections of an army of any country". The PM had said that the Indian forces have always followed this path as underlined by the celebrated poet.

Heads begin to roll as Morena toll touches 21

Collector, SP shifted; panel to examine causes; crackdown on suppliers begins

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

ON a day the death toll in the Morena hooch tragedy touched 21 by Wednesday afternoon, heads started rolling after Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan chaired a high-level meeting. The chief minister ordered the removal of Morena collector Anurag Verma and police superintendent Anurag Sujaniya. A sub divisional officer of police (SDOP) was suspended for dereliction of duty. The government has suspended four policemen, including the SDOP and Bagchini police station in-charge, and an excise department official (in-charge) Morena district.

During the high-level meeting chaired by Chouhan, a decision was taken to form a high-level fact finding committee to probe into the incident and identify the lapses which led to the tragedy.

The high-level committee comprising additional chief secretary (ACS-Home) and two senior police officers from the state PHQ will visit Morena district to conduct the detailed probe. It was also decided to start a statewide drive against illicit liquor and conduct regular inspection of all distilleries. The death toll in the Morena hooch tragedy continued to rise, with seven more persons succumbing between Tuesday night and Wednesday evening. As many as 16 others have been hospitalised in Morena and Gwalior, of whom the condition of two to three are stated to be critical.

Two key accused in the case, identified as Pappu Pandit and Ramveer Rathore (prime accused), who were taken into custody, are among those admitted to a hospital as they too had consumed spurious liquor. Condition of the prime accused is stated to be critical.

According to IG-Chambal Range Manoj Sharma, searches are being conducted to arrest the remaining five accused. All the seven accused have been booked for culpable homicide not amounting to murder. Meanwhile, angry villagers blocked the road between Manpur and Chherna village, demanding immediate establishment of a police outpost and removal of the nearby licensed liquor outlet.

FRESH SNOWFALL ADDS TO WINTER CHILL IN SRINAGAR

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE ongoing spell of biting cold, known as the 40-day Chilai Kalan, is wreaking havoc, with mercury dipping to minus 7.8 degree to give Srinagar its coldest night eight years on Wednesday. While the fresh bout of snowfall led to the closure of Srinagar-Jammu national highway, the weatherman said that the spell was not unprecedented as heavy snowfall was recorded last year as well. However, the meteorological office warned of nights turning more chilly as the week progresses.

Waterbodies, including portions of the famed Dal Lake, remained frozen, forcing boatmen to break the ice. Bonfires became a usual sight across the region, while commuters had a tough time negotiating the icy roads in the morning.

The Director of the meteorological office in Kashmir, Sonam Lotus, warned that the night temperature may drop to -9 degrees Celsius in next two to four days.

Kashmir is presently in the grip of a 40-day harshest winter period known as Chilai Kalan. During the Chilai Kalan, which starts on December 21 and ends on January 31, chances of snowfall soar. The Valley received heavy snowfall for three days from January 3, throwing life out of gear. It not only disconnected Kashmir's surface and air link but also plunged Valley into darkness as electricity poles and wires were damaged. Although electricity was restored within 24-72 hours, snow was not cleared from the roads, confining people to their homes.

After facing criticism, officials pressed men and machinery into service to clear snow from the roads. However, all the main roads were not cleared. People at most places in interior areas and localities cleared snow from lanes and bylanes on their own.

Mushtaq Ahmad, a resident of Uranhall in south Kashmir's Anantnag district, had to hire a vehicle for snow clearance to take his wife (a cancer patient) to a hospital in Srinagar. He paid ₹3,000 to the driver.

Bengal BJP sees no resonance, opts out of taking farmer drive to Muslim areas

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kolkata

BJP's West Bengal unit has decided not to carry out Krishak Suraksha Abhiyan (KSA) in minority dominated pockets of the state. KSA is an outreach drive by the BJP to woo farmers in the backdrop of the large scale agitation in Delhi against three farm laws. Though the party's national leadership had set the target of reaching out to 40,000 villages through door-to-door campaigns, it decided not to touch areas where Muslim electorate was the deciding factor.

"We are calculating our vote share by keeping aside the minority voters. We know they will not vote for us. So there is no point of wasting time in carrying out campaigns in minority pockets," said a senior BJP leader in Kolkata.

Muslim voters, forming 30 per cent of the total electorate, have strong presence at least 85 Assembly segments. The community had realigned its affiliation in 2011 and voted en bloc for TMC. Ever since then, the Bengal chief minister has been enjoying their support.

The BJP initiated the Abhiyan to blunt Mamata's attack by highlighting the saffron camp as an anti-farmer party. Party's national president JP Nadda flagged off the outreach initiative last week by collecting fistful of rice from five farmer families in East Burdwan district, the area known as Bengal's rice bowl.

West Bengal has 72 lakh farmer families. "As the Central government has ruled out repeal of the laws, Mamata is likely to sharpen her attack on this issue. We have been asked by the leadership to reach out the Bengal's farmers and convince them about the positive aspects of the new farm laws. In districts like Hooghly, Howrah, South 24 Parganas, North 24 Parganas, Murshidabad, and Nadia, minority presence is considerable. And we are not going to campaign there as they will not vote for us," said another BJP leader.

30-day notice under UP Spl Marriage Act optional

NAMITA BAJPAI @ New Delhi

IN a big relief to inter-faith couples, the Lucknow bench of the Allahabad High Court Wednesday ruled publication of notice of intended marriages under the Special Marriage Act can't be mandatory as it violates the Right To Privacy.

The court said publication of such a notice and inviting objections to it "would be an infringement of the fundamental rights of liberty and privacy". It is up to the couple to decide whether to publish their notice or not, said Justice Vivek Chaudhary.

The court passed the order while hearing a habeas corpus petition filed by a Muslim woman who had converted to Hinduism to marry a Hindu man. The petitioner said her father was not letting her live with her husband.

The court also observed that the publication of notice 30 days ahead of the intended marriage will affect the couple's freedom to solemnise the marriage "without interference from state and non-state actors." If the couple did not make a written request for publication of notice, the Marriage Officer "shall not publish any such notice or entertain objections to the intended marriage and proceed with the solemnization of the marriage", said the 47-page judgment.

Cabinet nod for big-ticket reforms

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

IN a major step aimed at boosting mineral production in the country and bring more mineral blocks to the auction table, the Union Cabinet on Wednesday approved a proposal for doing away with the distinction between captive and non-captive mines.

Captive mines are those that produce coal or mineral for exclusive use by the company that owns the mines, while non-captive ones those that produce as well as sell the fuel. With the distinction removed, now captive mines will also be able to sell their produce.

The reforms will be carried out by amending certain sections of the Mines and Mineral (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957. A bill to amend these will be placed in Parliament in the upcoming session, highly placed sources said.

Officials added that private entities will also be engaged in exploration now. Simplification of exploration regime will be done to facilitate seamless transition from exploration to production, they explained.

BJP seeks resignation of Munde over bigamy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

THE opposition in Maharashtra is gunning for the resignation of NCP minister Dhananjay Munde after he disclosed he had two wives.

While BJP Maharashtra president Chandrakant Patil said that Munde should resign on moral ground, former chief minister Devendra Fadnavis sought a fair probe into the allegations leveled against the minister. Meanwhile, former BJP MP Kirit Somaiya wrote to the Election Commission of India, seeking Munde's disqualification referring to the law that a bigamous person could not become the member of any house. Meanwhile, Munde alleged that his second wife and sister in-law were blackmailing him. "I was not able to fulfill their demands, and this is the reason behind them leveling wild allegations of sexual harassment against me," Munde said. Munde's second wife's sister Renu Sharma had lodged a complaint against Munde, claiming Munde had had promised her a role in a film and used her for personal interests.

BSF uncovers 150 metre-long tunnel in Samba district along Pakistan border

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Border Security Force (BSF) on Wednesday found a tunnel along the International Border (IB) in Samba district, with its mouth opening on the Pakistan side. Investigations are on to find out whether the 150 metre-long, 30 metre-deep tunnel was used by infiltrators, given all passes have been blocked due to the heavy snowfall in the region. The officials recovered made-in-Karachi sandbags, pointing towards connivance of the Pakistan establishment.

Inspector General BSF, Jammu, N S Jamwal said his men detected the tunnel during an anti-tunnel drive at Bobiyan village along the border with Pakistan in Samba district. The drive was launched based on intelligence reports on the possibility of tunnels along the border in the districts of Samba and Kathua.

Officials said the diameter of the tunnel spanned two-three feet. The Karachi-made sandbags and the tunnel's mouth opening in Pakistan's territory indicated the involvement of Pakistan establishment,

> It seems to be an old tunnel. The condition of the sandbags indicates it is not newly dug
>
> NS Jamwal, IG BSF, Jammu

Jamwal said.

When asked if the tunnel was newly-dug, Jamwal said, "It seems to be an old tunnel. The condition of the sandbags indicates it is not newly dug." The BSF IG said that investigations were underway to ascertain if the tunnel was used recently.

A BSF official said that after the recent heavy snowfall closed all infiltration passes to Kashmir, Pakistani troops were trying to push armed militants into J&K through tunnels in Jammu. However, he said that the border guards were equipped to meet any challenge, with the officials intensifying the anti-tunnel drive along the IB in Jammu region.

Dishing out finger-licking Uzbek kebabs from his joint on wheels

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

THE week started with a bang for 30-year-old Ishan Agarwal, whose week-old venture Bandstand BBQ found mention in a tweet by actress Raveena Tandon urging people to 'Show Some Love'. Ishan's food joint is run entirely from a Royal Enfield bike, dishing out delicacies to a steady trickle of patrons along Rajpur road in Dehradun. The main attraction of his kitchen on wheels is Kebakh, an Uzbekistani take on the mouthwatering kebab.

After losing his job as a marketing head for an Australian Coffee firm in middle-east, he took heart from Prime Minister Narendra Modi's advice on self-employment. "I come from a well-to-do family. Hence, it is not as much about money as it is about following my dream. No work is small, as was enumerated by our prime minister when he said that we should not even shy away from selling pakoras if we can put our heart and mind into it," he says. For a venture that started with an initial investment of ₹15,000, the ₹5,000 a day he earns while dishing out kebakh in five hours between 6 pm and 11 pm ensured that he broke even even before the first week in business was past. Coming back to Kebakh, Ishan first tasted it when he was in Uzbekistani city of Jizzakh in 2015.

Ishan's repertoire of entrepreneurship is not limited to the BBQ. In September last, he started an e-commerce company with an investment of ₹30,000. Now selling over 50 skincare and lifestyle products, the company has a turnover of ₹1.5 lakh a month. And just like his BBQ, he manages the entire operation – from manufacturing to marketing – on his own.

Infosys, Wipro post stellar growth

Both the IT majors have seen record deal wins in Q3 which led to better operating margins

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

ROBUST demand from enterprise clients for cloud, data analytics and cyber security has resulted in optimism in the IT sector with major players like Infosys and Wipro upping margins and revenue guidance. Infosys has revised its revenue growth guidance for FY21 in the range of 4.5-5 per cent in constant currency terms and operating margin at 24-24.5 per cent, while Wipro has forecast a sequential hike in revenue in the range of 1.5-3.5 per cent for Q4FY21.

Both the firms have reported some of the largest deal wins in their history during October-December quarter and cut in discretionary spendings which led to expansion in the operating margins. While Infosys outperformed its peers with a huge $7.13 billion large deal wins, rival Wipro said that it is on its path to growth trajectory. Infosys CEO Salil Parekh has attributed the deal wins across verticals like manufacturing, financial services and communication to the IT services provider's investments in digital capabilities before Covid-19.

The Bengaluru-headquartered firm, he said, has been able to achieve its target of clocking more than 50 per cent revenues from digital, which will continue to increase in the upcoming quarters. "With intense focus on client needs and comprehensive foundation built on differentiated capabilities, I remain confident about the future," he added. Infosys' Q3 net profit grew by 16.6 per cent to ₹5,197 crore over the previous year. The sequential revenue hike was 8-year high at 5.3 per cent at ₹25,927 crore.

Meanwhile, Wipro has been focusing on linear structure to drive growth. The management rejig at Wipro has paid off with the company announcing major deal clinches in Q3 FY21, which resulted in the net profit rising by 21 per cent to ₹2,968 crore whereas the gross revenues for the quarter grew by 3.7 per cent sequentially at ₹15,670 crore. "We are aware that we have grown less than others, but we have restored growth in Q2 and are accelerating in next quarters. We'll continue to make investments to grow faster," Wipro CEO Thierry Delaporte said.

RBI sets up 6-member panel to examine digital lending

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has formed a working group to study digital lending activities of both regulated as well as unregulated entities. The group, which has been advised to submit its report within three months, will suggest steps to regulate digital lending including online lending platform and mobile lending.

"While penetration of digital methods in the financial sector is a welcome development, the benefits and certain downside risks are often interwoven in such endeavours. A balanced approach needs to be followed so that the regulatory framework supports innovation while ensuring data security, privacy, confidentiality and consumer protection," RBI said in a release. This move assumes significance in the context of recent reports of illegal app-based lenders thriving across the country. There has been a spate of cases where borrowers allegedly ended their lives following humiliation by app-based financiers. In fact, social activists, who are in touch with such borrowers. say most of these apps are funded by Chinese companies. "We have received 45,000 complaints where borrowers are being harassed for repayment by loan apps," Pravin Kalaiselvan, chairman of Save Them India Foundation told TNIE in December 2020.

The working group will evaluate digital lending activities and assess the penetration and standards of outsourced digital lending activities in RBI regulated entities, identify risks posed by unregulated digital lending to financial stability, regulated entities and consumers. The group will also suggest regulatory changes to promote orderly growth of digital lending and suggest measures for enhanced consumer protection The external members of the panel are Rahul Sasi, cyber security expert and founder of CloudSEK and Vikram Mehta, co-founder, Monexo Fintech.

Know the members

The six-member panel comprises four RBI internal and two external members. Jayant Kumar Dash, executive director, RBI will be chairman of the group. Other three internal members are Ajay Kumar Choudhary, CGM-in-charge, Department of Supervision, P Vasudevan, CGM Department of Payment and Manoranjan Mishra, CGM, Department of Regulation.

India Inc revenue rises in Oct-Dec quarter, but inflation remains a drag

JAYANTA ROY CHOWDHURY
@ New Delhi

EARLY results have shown India Inc revenues rising by 8.1 per cent in the December quarter, a first after three successive quarters of degrowth. However, rising commodity inflation and weak capital expenditure remain a worry for businesses as they strive to recapture their lost mojo.

Listed companies have showed a revenue contraction of 5 per cent in the quarter ended March last year even (though the lockdown started on March 24), by a massive 27.6 per cent in the June quarter and by a more moderate 6.2 per cent in the September quarter, according to CMIE data, "The results of the first flush of companies which have come out with quarterly results, are also the first sure signs that the economy is on the mend though much of the sales are accounted for by the festive season and by a pent up demand releasing at the end of a prolonged lockdown," said Sanjay Bhattacharyya, former SBI managing director.

> A strong recovery in growth is (still) likely this year and next, but we think that GDP in 2022 will be six per cent below its level had the virus not existed
> Shilan Shah, senior india economist, Capital Economics

Bhattacharyya, who is on the board of a number of leading companies', added that the trend will likely be carried into the quarter ending March 2021 as more "sectors which were in lockdown doldrums," such as aviation, food and travel, start opening up and the vaccination drive infuses confidence among people and make up for sectors where pent up demand starts petering out.

However, the worry is for the financial year ahead. Spending on capital expenditure for India's listed companies was as low as ₹85,000 crore, down from the ₹1.05 lakh crore spent in the quarter ended March 31, 2020. "Without capex spending one cannot expect any real growth in corporate revenues in the coming year," pointed out Prof Biswajit Dhar of JNU. "All that you will see is return to normal capacity utilisation."

Meanwhile, inflation remains a bigger worry.

"Already corporate expenditure is going up, despite cutting costs on wages and office space. Commodity inflation cycle is going up. Our big worry is that raw material costs will go up . the RBI like most central banks have released more money into the economy to fight the pandemic, this is fuelling an inflationary push along with commodity prices rising," pointed out Bhattacharyya.

India's money in circulation went up from ₹24.47 lakh crore in end-March 2020 to ₹27.70 lakh crore as on Jan 1, 2021, according to RBI data. Corporate honchos and economists worry rising prices could hit demand and trouble India Inc.'s return to a growth story. According to Shilan Shah, senior India economist at Capital Economics: "The severe downturn — exacerbated by the government's disappointingly slow and weak fiscal support-will leave lasting wounds in the form of firm closures and higher unemployment."

The unemployment rate at 8.5 per cent is still considered high and this could impair demand. A banking sector which is expected to see near doubling of its bad loans will also remain a drag.

"A strong recovery in growth is (still) likely this year and next, but we think that GDP in 2022 will still be 6 per cent below its level had the virus not existed," Shah noted.

Govt plans to sell up to 10% in SAIL, offer opens on Thursday

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE government plans to sell up to 10 per cent stake in steel major SAIL with the offer for sale opening on Thursday.

"Offer for Sale (OFS) in SAIL opens on Thursday for non-retail investors. 15th January is for retail investors. GoI would divest five per cent equity with a five per cent greenshoe option," Department of Investment and Public Asset Management (DIPAM) Secretary Tuhin Kanta Pandey tweeted on Wednesday. The government holds 75 per cent stake in the steel behemoth. It had divested some five per cent equity in Steel Authority of India (SAIL) about six years back.

The floor price for the offer has been set at ₹64 per share according to a regulatory filing. Some 20.6 crore shares with a face value of ₹10 each will be on sale with an option to sell up to 20.6 crore equity shares.

If the total 10 per cent is sold off, the government could potentially raise nearly ₹2,700 crore from the sell-off. Finance Ministry had set a target of raising ₹2.1 lakh crore from disinvestment this year and has come nowhere near that target. Till now the government has raised ₹28,298.26 crore from disinvestment. The sell-off in the blue-chip steel major at the beginning of a commodity cycle where steel prices are going up is seen as a way of raising some money ahead of the budget.

The government has also lined up a ₹4,600-crore initial public offering of the Indian Railway Finance Corporation (IRFC), a state-run railway financing firm. The IRFC issue is opening next week on January 18 which could fetch over ₹1,500 crore. It has set a price band of ₹25 to ₹26 per equity share for the share sale.

Other major sell offs such as that of Air India and BPCL are not expected this financial year and are likely to be completed only in the next financial year.

Paytm Money unveils F&O trading on app

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

ONLINE investments platform Paytm Money has launched futures and options (F&O) trading on its platform, the company announced through a virtual event January 13. The Bengaluru-headquartered company is offering all F&O trades at a flat rate of ₹10, without any commitments, packages or contracts. Speaking at the event, Paytm founder Vijay Shekhar Sharma said, with this feature, the company is hoping to increase its active users and has set a target of attaining an annual turnover of ₹1.5 lakh crore and a million trades in the next two years.

"There are 20-25 million active investors in India. We at Paytm want to help drive this numbers towards 100 million, thereby helping drive financial inclusion," said Sharma. Currently, the firm has 7 million users with an annual transaction volume of 10 million.

Amazon launches academy to help JEE aspirants

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

E-COMMERCE giant Amazon has forayed into the booming edtech sector with the launch of Amazon Academy — an online test preparation platform for JEE and other engineering aspirants. The online preparation offering will equip students with in-depth knowledge and practice routines through curated learning material, live lectures and comprehensive assessments in subjects like math, physics and chemistry. The beta version of Amazon Academy will be available free of cost on the web and the Google Play store, the company said.

The e-tailer said that it will also hold live All India Mock Tests (AIMT) at scheduled intervals to mirror the JEE experience The mock tests include chapter tests, part tests, and full tests that simulate the JEE pattern, helping students manage exam preparedness at their own pace. Amazon said that in addition to the JEE, those preparing for BITSAT, VITEEE, SRMJEEE, and MET exams will also benefit from the resources available.

Online education sector in India has seen an explosive demand during the pandemic with all platforms registering millions of users for regular tuitions, test preparations and upskilling purposes. Edtech industry has garnered billions of dollars in investment in 2020, and is likely to continue the growth momentum. India's largest edtech firm Byjus is in talks with the test preparation firm Aakash educational institutions for a $1 billion deal which could lead to the formation of the country's biggest omnichannel education company. "Aakash Educational Services Limited (AESL) is in talks with Byju's for building a strong partnership. Putting all speculations to rest, we would like to state that AESL is on a mission to build India's largest digitally-enabled, omni-channel education company. We will accelerate our digital transformation and deliver phenomenal value to our students. We will rapidly expand our omni channel and digital offerings," AESL said.

Kerala granted ₹2,261 cr borrowing limit post 'ease of doing biz' reforms

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

The Centre on Wednesday said it has permitted Kerala to borrow an additional ₹2,261 crore after the state successfully undertook 'ease of doing business' reforms. With this, Kerala has now joined seven other states — Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Odisha, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu and Telangana — which have completed the reforms facilitating ease of doing business to be eligible for the additional borrowing. These states have been granted an additional borrowing permission of ₹23,149 crore.

Citizen-centric reforms undertaken so far

Ten states have implemented the One Nation One Ration Card System so far, 8 states have done ease of doing business and 4 states local body reforms.

States, which have done the reforms so far, have been permitted to borrow ₹56,526 crore.

"Kerala has become the 8th State in the country to successfully undertake "Ease of Doing Business"...Thus, the state has become eligible to mobilise additional financial resources of ₹2,261 crore through open market borrowings. Permission for the same was issued by the Department of Expenditure on January 12," the Finance Ministry said in a statement. The ease of doing business is an important indicator of the investment-friendly business climate. In May 2020, the government had announced to link grant of additional borrowingpermissions to states who undertake the reforms to facilitate ease of doing business as part of the 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat' package. With regards to citizen-centric reforms, 10 states have so far implemented the 'One Nation One Ration Card System', states have done ease of doing business and four states have done local body reforms.

Essar Oil to set up hydrogen project in UK

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

ESSAR Oil UK will build the country's first low-carbon hydrogen hub along with UK-based Progressive Energy, at the former's Stanlow refinery in Ellesmere Port, Cheshire. The low carbon hydrogen hub will initially produce three terawatt-hours (TWh) of low carbon hydrogen each year from 2025, the company said in a statement on Wednesday.

This will be quickly followed by a facility twice this size giving a total capacity of over 9 TWh of hydrogen per annum, equivalent to the energy used for heating across the whole of Liverpool. Total investment of 750million pounds will be committed to deliver the two hydrogen production hubs. The refinery will be converted to burn hydrogen instead of natural gas.

"It (the project) will provide Essar Oil UK with low carbon hydrogen to decarbonise its own energy demand in addition to creating a hydrogen economy across North West England and North East Wales," the statement said. The hydrogen production hub will deliver clean energy to industry in the HyNet 'low carbon cluster', and to fuel buses, trains and heavy goods vehicles, to heat homes, as well as to generate electricity when the sun is not shining.

Mercedes maintains its lead for sixth year, to launch 15 cars in 2021

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

MERCEDES-BENZ continued its leadership position in the Indian luxury car market for the sixth year in a row. The German carmaker sold 7,893 new cars in 2020 as against 13,786 units sold in 2019.

That is 42.7 per cent less than previous year largely due to disruptions induced by the Covid-19. Mercedes said it made a strong comeback in sales after the initial setback in Q2 (563 units), and registered a growth of 40 per cent in Q4 (2886 units) compared to the preceding quarter (2058 units in Q3). The carmaker's closest rival and second largest player in the segment BMW had delivered 6,604 units of BMW and MINI cars in 2020, lower by 31 per cent over 2019 sales.

To further maintain its lead in 2021, Mercedes Benz said it would be launching 15 new products. The new launches comprises a mix of models across body shapes, some without any predecessor in the Indian market. Some of the products lined up for 2021 are the New A-Class Limousine, New GLA and AMG GT Black Series. Last week, Mercedes launched its flagship S-class Maestro Edition at ₹1.51 crore.

"We remain cautiously optimistic and are confident of continuing the sales momentum gained despite facing pandemic triggered market upheavals. We back it up with 15 new or renewed products and innovations in doing business. 2021 will be a product packed year, which we are confident will translate into excitement for customers and our dealers," said Martin Schwenk, managing director & chief executive officer, Mercedes-Benz.

Overall,India's luxury car market is estimated to have declined by over 40 per cent in 2020. Official data have showed that around 35,000 cars were sold in this segment in 2019.

Pistol ace Rahi topper in national trials

Asian Games champ Rahi Sarnobat won the women's 25m pistol event at national shooting trials in New Delhi on Wednesday. Sarnobat beat a field comprising of fellow Tokyo quota holders Manu Bhaker and Chinki Yadav. At the shotgun ranges, Lakshay Sheoran and Rajeshwari Kumari, won the men's and women's T1 Trap competition respectively.

Langer bats for Paine & Smith

Australia coach defends skipper for Sydney antics, says slips-ups part of game

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

THE mood in the two camps could not have been more different ahead of the last Test, beginning in Brisbane on Friday. While India have to count the walking wounded in a quarantine hotel that is reportedly short of the promises made by Cricket Australia, the hosts are feeling a bit defensive for scenes that transpired on a desperate last day in Sydney.

Tim Paine's borderline heckling of R Ashwin has predictably not gone down well. To add to that, a clip of Steve Smith, supposedly scuffing Rishabh Pant's guard, has led to a chorus of 'cheater, cheater'. It rubbed many people the wrong way because this was exactly the image Australia wanted to move away from after the ball-tampering scandal in South Africa in 2018. There was a very public rebuke post the incident and CA, wanting to set the record straight, threw the book because they wanted to put in place a new culture.

That the majority of questions aimed at Justin Langer during a media interaction on Wednesday pertained to Smith and Paine's actions on the final day captured where Australia were at. The former opener said it was a good reminder and what happens when you slip.

"That is one of the challenges of leadership, talking about culture and how important culture is. You can't slip, and if you do slip, you get criticised for it, and that's all okay. I remember a mate told me a few years ago if you're going to build a hotel, it takes years to do it, but it takes a couple of hours to rip it all down."

With respect to Smith, he called the accusations ludicrous. "Anyone who suggests he was trying to do something untoward, they are way out of line. That wicket was like concrete. You need 15-inch spikes to make an indent on the crease and he went nowhere near the crease. He has let his bat do the talking (since coming back from the ban), he was abused like I have never seen anything through England and he just kept smiling and letting his bat do the talking. Give me a break."

"Paine did not have his best day, no doubt about that. But he has hardly put a hair out of place, he has been outstanding as the Australian captain. He will continue to lead for quite some time," defended Langer.

COACH QUIET, PLAYERS BULLISH

EVER since he ended up being in the India dressing room, first as a player, followed by a brief stint as manager-cum-coach and then as team director and head coach, Ravi Shastri has embodied fighting spirit. Over his two stints as coach of team since 2014, he has perhaps mentioned 'character' more often than 'tracer bullet'. At times, he may sound hyperbolic, possibly with an intent to make players feel better than they are. While coaches speak about philosophy, Shastri has seldom shown if he has one. Venkata Krshna B writes.

LYON BACKS SIRAJ'S MODE OF PROTEST

Nathan Lyon is of the belief that Mohammed Siraj could have well set the way forward in how to deal with abuse from the crowd. "For me, there is no room for anything racial or any abuse," he said during a press conference. "I know people think they are funny, but it can affect people in different ways. I think it is quite disgusting to be honest with you. I have... copping abuse, whether that is in England or NZ or SA. It's totally upto the player (stopping play and involving match officials) and how they have been affected." Swaroop Swaminathan reports.

OVER TO GABBATOIR

The Gabba Test has a sort of mythical presence in the Australian cricket calendar. This year, it is where one of the most dramatic of series will conclude. Here's a look at talking points ahead of the final Test between India and Australia, beginning in Brisbane on Friday...

1 HUNTING GROUND

When India raised the possibility of moving the Brisbane Test, Australian players made their emotions clear. They did not want to skip Brisbane, even if it meant a hard quarantine. The reason is clear. They have won 24 of the 31 Tests there (seven draws), with 11 of those either innings wins or by 10 wickets. Playing there is almost a guaranteed win for them and they do not want to lose that advantage.

2 INDIA'S XI

It is telling that the visitors have not ruled out Hanuma Vihari and R Ashwin yet. Saying that, there will be more forced changes because of the injuries to Ravindra Jadeja and Jasprit Bumrah. Will it be Shardul Thakur and Kuldeep Yadav? Will T Natarajan debut? Could Mayank Agarwal play in the middle-order if Vihari is ruled out? There are lots of questions and it could continue for at least the next few hours.

3 THE PITCH

The Bribane track is largely true to what you usually get Down Under: fast, hard, bouncy. It is why their bowlers like playing here. The last two visiting teams to Gabba lost 35 wickets to the pace of Pat Cummins, Mitchell Starc, Josh Hazlewood and Jhye Richardson out of 39 (one was retired hurt). Will the likes of Mohammed Siraj and Navdeep Saini be able to do the same sort of damage?

WEATHER: The start should be alright but rainfall has been predicted on the subsequent days, either during play or in the night.

Win solace for Srikanth, Saina

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

TUESDAY was a day filled with twists and turns for Indian shuttlers in Bangkok, especially for the likes of Saina Nehwal, HS Prannoy and Parupalli Kashyap who had faced ejection from the ongoing Thailand Open. Kidambi Srikanth had endured a bleeding nose after his nasal swab test. Twenty four hours later the Indian shuttlers were back in business.

Saina passed her first test on court, posting a straight-games victory over Kisona Selvaduray. Former World No 1 Srikanth was also in the zone, dismantling compatriot Sourabh Verma with ease. Prannoy was also up and running, like Kashyap. Even though Prannoy and Kashyap (retired) could not emulate Saina, fact that they were in action was a morale-booster.

Azharuddeen, name Mumbai won't forget

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

MOHAMMED Azharuddeen. Those who follow domestic cricket might have heard the name and remembered the Kerala player because of the famous player he shares his name with. After Wednesday, fans will remember him for another reason.

The 26-year-old played the innings of his life at Wankhede Stadium that pulverised Mumbai in a Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy T20 match and announced his arrival. Without a half-century in 20 T20 matches before this one, Azharuddeen smashed an unbeaten 137 off 54 balls with nine fours and 11 sixes. Powered by the scarcely believable assault, Kerala overhauled Mumbai's 196/7 in a mere 15.5 overs. There have been brisk starts in T20s and when Kerala reached 50 in the fourth over, it appeared to be one of those. But the difference was, the torrent kept gathering momentum. After 7 overs 104/0, after 10 overs 140/1, it just did not stop.

Two in two for Delhi

Delhi beat Andhra Pradesh by six wickets to record their second straight win in the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy T20 tournament. Put into bat at Wankhede Stadium in Mumbai in the Group B match, Andhra were restricted to 124/9. Delhi made 128/4 in 17 overs.

Ankita loses final Rd of Oz Open qualifiers

DUBAI: Ankita Raina's bid to qualify for a Grand Slam singles main draw failed yet again when she lost the final round of the Australian Open qualifying event to Serbian Olga Danilovic on Wednesday. In the women's singles qualifiers being held in Dubai, Ankita lost the third and final round 2-6, 6-3, 1-6 to her Serbian opponent. It was the Indian's sixth attempt to qualify for a Major.

Chennaiyin FC end winless streak

GOA: Chennaiyin FC held on to secure a 2-1 victory over Odisha FC at the GMC Stadium Bambolim on Wednesday. A quickfire double from Esmael Goncalves in the space of six minutes in the first-half sealed the win for the two-time champions. A first victory from the last five attempts meant last year's runners-up rise to fifth in the table with 14 points from 11 games.

Gopi scores brace in Bangalore Eagles win

BENGALURU: Bangalore Eagles defeated Bangalore Dream United FC 2-0 in the BDFA Super Division Football League Championship at the Bangalore Football Stadium on Wednesday. Both the goals were scored by Gopi in the 35th and 41st minute. In the other contests of the day, Bangalore Independents FC beat ADE FC 3-1.

Sireesh, Bhargava star in Vultures win

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SIREESH Balgaar and Bhargava S impressed with both the bat and ball respectively to help Vultures Cricket Club beat Hammonds Cricket Club by 202 runs in the KSCA U-19 inter-club tournament. Hundreds of National Guard troops rest inside the Capitol as Washington comes under heavy guard on Wednesday | AP

TRUMP'S GOP WALL CRUMBLES PRIOR TO IMPEACHMENT VOTE

Top Republicans finally see their chance to purge him from the party

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump is on the verge of being impeached for a second time in a fast-moving House vote, just a week after he encouraged loyalists to "fight like hell" against election results and then a mob of supporters stormed the US Capitol.

Security was exceptionally tight Wednesday, shocking images of National Guard troops massed at the iconic Capitol, with secure perimeters around the complex and metal-detector screenings required for lawmakers entering the House chamber.

While Trump's first impeachment in 2019 brought no Republican votes in the House, a small but significant number of leaders and lawmakers are breaking with the party to join Democrats, saying Trump violated his oath to protect and defend US democracy.

The stunning collapse of Trump's final days in office, against alarming warnings of more violence ahead by his followers, leaves the nation at an uneasy and unfamiliar juncture before Democrat Joe Biden is inaugurated Jan. 20.

Pence doesn't budge

The House tried first to push Vice President Mike Pence and the Cabinet to intervene, passing a resolution Tuesday night calling on them to invoke the 25th Amendment to the Constitution to remove Trump from office. Pence made it clear he would not do so, saying in a letter to House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, that it was "time to unite our country as we prepare to inaugurate" Biden.

The McConnell factor

Republicans offered only modest reproach when President Donald Trump said there were "very fine people" on both sides of a white supremacist rally. They stayed in line when Trump was caught pressuring a foreign leader and later defended his handling of a deadly pandemic.

But with a sudden force, the wall of Republican support that has enabled Trump to weather a seemingly endless series of crises is beginning to erode.

Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell believes Trump committed impeachable offenses and considers Democrats' impeachment drive an opportunity to reduce the divisive, chaotic president's hold on the GOP, a Republican strategist said.

McConnell also called major Republican donors this weekend to gauge their thinking about Trump and was adamantly told that Trump had clearly crossed a line. McConnell told them he was through with Trump, said the strategist, who demanded anonymity to describe McConnell's conversations. AP

Coronavirus deaths in the US hit another one-day high at 4,327 with the country's attention focused largely on the fallout from the uprising at the Capitol. The overall death toll from Covid-19 has eclipsed 3,80,000

Trump's son blames 'cancel culture' for backlash

WASHINGTON

The PGA canceled its tournament at his golf course. Banks say they won't lend to him anymore. New York City is looking to end his contract to operate the Central Park skating rink.

Hits to President Donald Trump's business empire since the deadly riots at the US Capitol are part of a liberal "cancel culture," his son, Eric, told The Associated Press on Tuesday, saying his father will leave the presidency with a powerful brand backed by millions of voters who will follow him "to the ends of the Earth."

"We live in the age of cancel culture, but this isn't something that started this week. It is something that they have been doing to us and others for years," said Trump, who along with his brother, Donald Jr., have been running the family company since their father took office four years ago. "If you disagree with them, if they don't like you, they try and cancel you."

Amid accusations Trump incited the mob, the PGA of America voted to strip its namesake championship from Trump's New Jersey golf course next year, a British golf organization said the British Open will not be played at a Trump property. AP

A specially constructed bunker in Italy for the first hearing of a maxi-trial against more than 350 defendants related to the 'ndrangheta crime syndicate | AFP

Trial kicks off against richest crime syndicate in the world

LAMEZIA TERME

ITALY'S largest mafia trial in more than 30 years opened Wednesday, as prosecutors seek to strike a blow against the 'Ndrangheta crime syndicate, whose tentacles reach worldwide.

More than 350 alleged members of the mafia and the politicians, lawyers, businessmen and others accused of enabling them face a judge in a specially converted courtroom in the southern Calabrian town of Lamezia Terme, in the heart of 'Ndrangheta territory.

They are accused of a web of crimes dating back to the 1990s, both bloody and white-collar, including murder, drug trafficking, extortion, money laundering and abuse of office.

Anti-mob prosecutor Nicola Gratteri said it was an "important day", telling reporters outside court that the trial would "give the idea of what the Calabrian mafia is today -- no longer a mafia of shepherds dedicated to kidnapping, but a major criminal corporation".

He later sat in the front row of the courtroom as Judge Tiziana Macri began reading out the names of the defendants, none of whom attended in person but who participated via video conference, their faces shown on dozens of TVs fitted over lines of grey desks.

In Italy, "maxi-trials," which include scores of defendants, are seen as the best judicial resource against the mafia. AFP

Intel ousts CEO after pressure from activist investor

SAN FRANCISCO

Intel CEO Bob Swan will step down next month, the computer chip giant said on Wednesday, weeks after a hedge fund sent a letter demanding changes in its business.

"Intel today announced that its board of directors has appointed 40-year technology industry leader Pat Gelsinger as its new chief executive officer, effective February 15, 2021," the company said in a statement. "He will succeed Bob Swan."

Though it said the announcement was "unrelated" to Intel's financial performance, the decision follows a December letter to the company from Third Point, led by activist investor Daniel Loeb. The hedge fund told the company it should consider outsourcing its manufacturing operations to keep pace with rivals in the sector such as Taiwan-based TSMC and South Korean giant Samsung, among others. "We suggest the board retain a reputable investment advisor to evaluate strategic alternatives, including whether Intel should remain an integrated device manufacturer and the potential divestment of certain failed acquisitions," the letter stated.

While Intel remains one of the world's leading chip companies, it has lagged behind rivals in the fast-growing segment of mobile devices, and its chips are being phased out by Apple, which is developing its own microprocessors for its Mac computers.

Swan was made interim chief executive in 2018 and appointed permanently the next year. AFP

Military warns troops against violence in unusual memo

WASHINGTON

AMID worry about renewed violence on Inauguration Day, the military's top leaders issued a written reminder to all service members Tuesday that the deadly insurrection at the Capitol last week was an anti-democratic, criminal act, and that the right to free speech gives no one the right to commit violence.

A memo signed by all members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff also reminded military members that Joe Biden was duly elected as the next president and will be sworn in to office on Jan. 20. The memo was unusual in that the military leadership, including Gen. Mark Milley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs, felt compelled to remind service members that it is wrong to disrupt the constitutional process. The language went further than statements by the civilian leader of the Pentagon, Acting Defense Secretary Christopher Miller, by describing the assault as an act of sedition and an insurrection. Miller has called it "reprehensible and contrary to the tenets of the United States Constitution." It has already been established that some military veterans participated in the riots. AP

Virus emergency in China province

BEIJING

A Chinese province of more than 37 million declared an "emergency state" on Wednesday to snuff out a handful of Covid-19 cases, as the country moved decisively to contain infections.

China had largely brought the coronavirus under control since its emergence in Wuhan late in 2019.

But recent weeks have seen smatterings of cases, prompting localised lockdowns, immediate travel restrictions and widespread testing of tens of millions of people. More than 20 million are now under some form of lockdown in the country's northern regions.

On Wednesday, the government of northeastern Heilongjiang -- with a population of 37.5 million people -- declared an "emergency state", telling residents not to leave the province unless absolutely necessary, and to cancel conferences and gatherings.

That was in response to finding 28 Covid-19 cases on Wednesday, including 12 that were asymptomatic.

Three infections were found in the provincial capital Harbin, which is hosting a famous ice sculpture festival that is usually a big draw for tourists.

The festival, featuring glittering ice palaces and fantastical scenes, has drawn millions over the years to one of China's coldest cities, where temperatures are set to dip to minus 30 degrees Celsius over the next few days.

Suihua city, a short car journey north and home to more than 5.2 million people, was sealed off on Monday after reporting one confirmed case and 45 asymptomatic cases. AFP

Aindrita Ray seems to have had a blast on her recent holiday. She posted a video of her trying kayaking and standup paddling as George Ezra'spopular track, Shotgun, plays in the background. She captioned the post, "I'll be riding shotgun underneath the hot sun".

Sanjeev Thomas on how music has been a constant through all the ups and downs in his life, be it quitting college to pursue his passion or being creative during lockdown

Rhythm & Reason

MONIKA MONALISA

SANJEEV Thomas sure knows how to breathe life into a guitar but the musician chooses to be humble about this. He says the thumb rule of being good at anything is to be passionate about it. And one can find the same amount of passion and emotion in his latest track, Bure Khayal. The track is from his album Future, which throws light on mental health through the struggles of a LGBTQIA+ couple. The official music video was dropped last week and has reached 2 lakh views already on YouTube.

The lockdown brought about feelings of being low in many and Thomas says he was no different. "The album comes from a personal space and this particular track focuses on the negative and dark thoughts that an individual goes through. During this time of loss, most of us have no choice but to think of something positive to help oneself out," says the city-based singer-composer, adding that the song is the third track from the album, which he started working on when the lockdown was imposed.

A sought-after name in the music scene, Thomas has been in the industry for more than 16 years and has worked with AR Rahman, Sid Sriram and Prashanth Pillai. But while success is easy to take note of, the days of struggles often go unnoticed. But the one thing that keeps Thomas going is his love for music. "This is completely passion driven. If you are passionate about things, then even living on instant noodles for days is easy," he says.

Thomas found his calling for music during his Bachelors in Commerce in Chennai. After having decided to quit academics, the musician had to convince his family of his decision. "My father definitely needed some time to be fine with it. The pressure was not just coming from concern but also from the questions that society would have regarding my decision," says Thomas, who started learning the guitar at the age of five, after his father encouraged him. The youngster then took to guitar like a fish takes to water. "I loved the '70s band Bee Gees and I always wanted to be like the guitarist Barry Gibb," he adds.

After many free performances and playing with various bands, Thomas' journey in music took off professionally in 2005. While there have been many high points in his career, one was his collaborations with the Mozart of Madras. Their first work came out in 2007 for One Love - Taj Anthem, an independent song that urged people to vote for Taj Mahal as one of the seven wonders of the world. He was also a part of the Jai Ho World tour in 2010. "I was one of the few Indians among the many foreigners who were playing Western instruments. That was definitely a highlight for me," says the 40-year-old singer-composer. While fans are still waiting for more collaborations, the musician says, "With AR Rahman nothing is planned. It just happens."

Currently, Thomas is busy with projects with Sid Sriram, a USA-based music producer and singer, whose songs like Samajavaragamana (Telugu) and Adiye (Tamil) have been chartbusters.

Ethnicity launches new store at Commercial Street

Ethnicity has opened its doors to the people of Bengaluru on Commercial Street. The store aims to cater to all the Indian wear needs of women, men and children. Ameet Panchal, CEO of the brand, said in a statement, "From sanitising the store on a daily basis to having masks and gloves available at the store, and providing a secure shopping environment that ensures customers' safety, is of our utmost priority."

Launch of care at home services

Nightingales, which offers home healthcare, in association with Cloudphysician, an intensive care management firm, has launched an 'Intensive Care at Home' service to provide specialised services to critically ill patients. The service has been introduced in Bengaluru and Mumbai. The service will be delivered through a multidisciplinary team effort led by Cleveland Clinic trained intensivists.

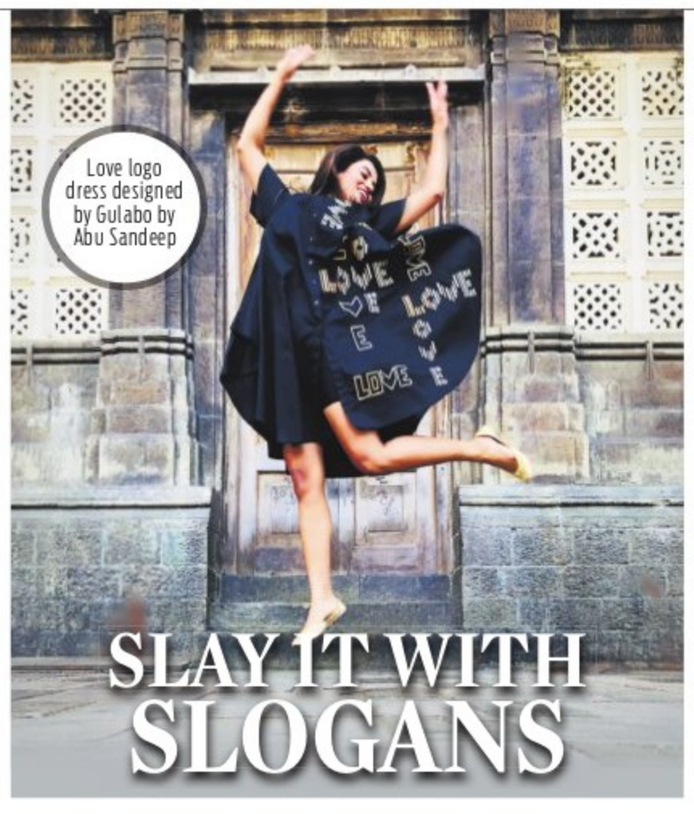
SLAY IT WITH SLOGANS

FASHION has always been the best form of self expression. 2021 marks a new year, a new beginning and a relevant time to commit to fashion that is more about values we stand for rather than seeking external validation. Our fashion choices can be used as a great tool to make a statement. Clothes with a slogan or a catchy word can make us stand out and also stand up for something we believe in at the same time.

When Maria Grazia Chiuri played with the idea of the F-word in her debut as Dior's creative head, her iconic 'We Should All Be Feminists' t-shirt went on to be the most Instagrammed look of spring/summer 2017, with celebrities like Anushka Sharma and Rihanna making a strong statement by sporting the du jour piece of the season. Victor and Ralph at Paris Couture Week'19 showcased voluminous gowns that were on point, making strong statements with slogans like, 'I'm not shy, I just don't like you' to 'Sorry I'm late, I didn't want to come' placed big and bold across the ensemble. Slogans are a great device to express ourselves, our mood or our views without having to say a word.



Ushering in the year with a much relevant tagline 'All you need is Love' is brand Gulabo by Abu Sandeep. An exuberant ode to love, their signature gota appliqué work features bold sparkly love logos. The collection is a feast of colours and separates with attitude. After a year of sweatpants and PJs, this collection makes you want to wear your heart and bring back love into your wardrobe. Wearing logos or slogans also means you care less about the style or fit but more about what you stand for.

"They say you are what you eat but you are also what you wear," says designer Palak Shah of Exhale Label, a brand that creates empowering garments to encourage conversation and awareness towards matters of the mind. Slogans on garments end up being a great outlet to express something without having to say anything at all! It ends up adding to your personality without trying to make a point. In a lot of ways, it also ends up empowering the person viewing the garment and a lot of the times, even the wearer. Exhale has a tee that says 'Survivor' written backwards, where when one looks in the mirror, you can read the word right. A lot of people wore it for New Year Eve as pretty much everyone has survived getting through 2020! "The power that a slogan holds is rather underrated," adds Palak.

Our world is constantly changing and with the younger generation, self expression is getting bolder and stronger by the day! They have a voice that is being used to communicate the most uncomfortable of topics. And here, conveying feelings via fashion adds so much more personality. Clothing with slogans are breaking a lot of mindsets and barriers and are going nowhere for the years to come!

Struggling post Covid-19, PG and co-living spaces are pinning hope on reopening of colleges and vaccine availability

IT used to be a full house at Sri Lakshmi Ladies PG at RT Nagar till the lockdown was announced in March 2020. But even with the restrictions having been lifted, paying guest accommodations and co-living spaces continue to bear a deserted look. Kavya Shetty, the owner of Sri Lakshmi Ladies PG, says, "The total occupancy of our space was 90. The number came down to 20-25 people during the lockdown, which still helped us pay the salary of the staff." She currently has around 40 tenants at the place, which she has been running for 11 years. Since IT professionals usually make up the majority of the tenants, many rooms still lie vacant as they continue to work remotely.

However, not all hope is lost, say owners, who are looking forward to seeing a rise in occupancy after Sankranthi as people are slowly returning. "Even colleges are slowly opening up and students who are not from the city are coming back. Many offices are also making a hybrid system of working from office and remotely compulsory. It's still negligible but we are hoping things will come back to normal," says Shetty.

Others like Rahul Baliga, co-founder of FF21, a co-living space, confirm that their branches near IT parks have lower occupancy than other branches. "But the inquiries have increased in the New Year. We have more people interested in areas like HSR Layout, which is closer to the city. But the ones near tech parks are yet to catch up," says Baliga, who hopes that things will improve once new employees take up jobs.

The vaccine too might have a role to play, feel some. "The change in numbers right now might not be drastic but as vaccines come in, things will improve as people will get the confidence to come back," says Nikhil Sikri, CEO, Zolostays.

Some occupants, however, have bid goodbye to co-living spaces for the time being. Take, for instance, Adyasha Panda. The techie returned home to Sambalpur, Odisha in March last year. With indefinite work from home, she decided to vacate her rented place in the city. "I had paid the rent till October. But since the time period for work from home was uncertain, there was no point in paying rent and not using it," says Panda.

The inquiries have increased in the New Year. We have more people interested in areas like HSR Layout, which is closer to the city. But the ones near tech parks are yet to catch up

FIT BIT

DRUTA UTKATASANA

(DYNAMIC ENERGY POSE)

In Sanskrit, 'Druta' means 'fast', 'utkata' means 'wild' or 'fierce' and 'asana' means 'pose'. It is one of the commonly recommended yoga poses for beginners, as it helps create the mental state, physical stretch and strength to perform asanas. It helps improve body flexibility and balance. Early morning practice is considered best. However, it can be practised in the evening as well. But one should give a gap of 5 to 6 hours between meals and practise. It helps in the stimulation of the heart and diaphragm. It helps increase strength and stamina, and strengthens hips and thighs.

STEPS

- Stand erect with both feet together and facing forward.
- Join your palms together in front of the chest.
- While inhaling, raise and straighten the arms above the head.
- While exhaling, slowly lower the body, bending the knees.
- Keep the feet and knees together throughout the practise.
- Squeeze your lower abdomen inwards; you must feel like you are touching your spine from inside.
- You can keep your arms either parallel to each other or joined together.
- Be aware as you hold the pose, and keep your spine lengthened.
- Lower the body down about 30 cm, straighten the legs and return to the upright position.
- Finally, lower the body until the buttocks rest on the floor. Inhale, raise up and come back to the original position.
- Repeat till there is no strain, but beginners can do five rounds, managing comfortably.

BENEFITS

- Stretches the back, hips, groin and calves.
- Stimulates the digestive organs.
- Relieves stress, tension and anxiety.
- Alleviates menopausal disorders. Helps reduce menstrual pain.
- Helps in lowering blood pressure.
- Helps in treating asthma.
- Helps in getting rid of constipation.
- Keeps reproductive system healthy.
- Considered therapeutic for sinusitis and osteoporosis.
- Improves the blood circulation.
- Strengthens spinal muscles.
- Loosens the hamstring muscles.
- Stimulates the spleen, liver and kidneys.

LIMITATIONS

- People with back ailments like slipped disc, sciatica, herniated disc and any chronic or abdominal issues or back injuries, should avoid.
- Women should avoid during pregnancy.
- People with eye disorders like glaucoma or detached retina, or those having a tear in hamstrings, sudden sharp and shooting pain in the legs, must avoid it.

RISHAB SHETTY'S HERO ROOTS FOR THE UNDERDOG

The trailer of the film, which marks the directorial debut of Bharath Raj, will be out today

A SHARADHAA

AFTER releasing the first-look, team Hero is coming up with the film's trailer on Thursday on the occasion of Sankranthi. Ahead of its release, actor Rishab Shetty and debutant director M Bharath Raj have revealed a few details about the project. Rishab, who is the face of Hero, says it was the first film to be shot post the lockdown. "What usually requires around 100 people, we managed to shoot with a 24-member crew," he said, expressing his happiness with the music composed by Ajaneesh B Loknath, who has done the background score and given music to three songs.

Rishab, who has marked his presence as a director, took to full-fledged acting with Bell Bottom, and this will be his second outing as a lead actor. He plays the role of a hair-stylist here. "The hero in this film portrays an underdog character, and the situation makes him a hero," says Rishab, revealing that 'Hero' will show a little bloodshed, which will also be revealed in the trailer. "Usually, our production house, Rishab Shetty Films, has explored 'feel-good' kind of subjects. This is the first time we are coming up with a full-fledged commercial entertainment drama that has elements of comedy and action, complete with violence," he adds.

With Aravind Kashyap cranking the camera, and stunt master Vikram choreographing the stunts, Hero has Ganavi Laxman playing the female lead. She is making a transition from teleserials to the big screen.

Rajavardan's action-based film to be titled Chakri

The film, to be directed by Kumaresh M and made under the actor's home banner, Red Diamond Productions, has a story penned by writer-filmmaker Hari Santhosh

CE FEATURES

CHAKRI is the title of Rajavardan's next film, the first venture to be made under his home banner, Red Diamond Productions. The film will be directed by Kumaresh. The subject has been conceived by writer-director Hari Santhosh, who has come up with a story based on a true situation involving a big scam. The title, Chakri, suits the plot, says the production house. The team is happy to have procured the title from producer Anaji Nagaraj, who is said to have agreed to their request. The Bicchugathii hero will undergo a major transformation for the role, and recently finished a photo shoot. The film is now in the pre-production stage, and the shooting is scheduled to start by March-end. The production house is in the process of putting together the complete cast and crew, and has brought on board music director Nakul Abhyankar so far. Rajavardan is the son of well known actor, Dingri Nagaraj, who has worked in more than 500 films.

Red and White Sevenraj forays into film production

CE FEATURES

RED and White Sevenraj has forayed into production with his banner Seven Raj, and is coming up with his first venture, Chaddi Dost Kaddi Alladusbutta. The film, being directed by Oscar Krishna, has music composed by Ananth Aryan for its two songs. The team recently launched its audio too. It has Gagan Kumar cranking the camera. The director has previously helmed Oscar, Miss Mallige, Monika is Missing and Manasina Mareyalli, and Chaddi Dost.. will be his fifth outing. It is said to be a crime thriller based on the Kannada novel by Koundinya. Chaddi Dost... has the producer and director facing the camera as well. While Oscar Krishna is playing the lead character, Sevenraj will be seen in the role of the antagonist. It also has Malayalam actor Gauri Nayar making her Kannada film debut.

Aparshakti Khurrana makes his digital debut

CE FEATURES

APARSHAKTI Khurana is making his digital debut in Vikramaditya Motwane's upcoming web-series Stardust. The show is a fictional take on the Indian film industry from 1947 to 1989 and explores the clash between two superstars. Besides Aparshakti, the cast is fronted by Prosenjit Chatterjee and Aditi Rao Hydari.

Excited about his digital debut, Aparshakti says, "I have been waiting to foray into the digital world but I had been waiting for the right project. When Stardust came my way, I knew that this would be it. I feel truly blessed that I will be directed by Vikramaditya Motwane. I have always been very fond of his work. I am also looking forward to sharing screen space with a stellar cast."

Apart from Stardust, Apartshakti will be seen in the upcoming comedy film Helmet. He will also appear in Dinesh Vijan's upcoming suspense thriller co-starring R Madhavan.

Parineeti Chopra's murder mystery The Girl On The Train to stream on Netflix

CE FEATURES

PARINEETI Chopra's murder mystery The Girl On The Train will skip its theatrical release, and stream directly on Netflix.

Directed by Ribhu Dasgupta, The Girl On The Train will premiere on Netflix on February 26. The film was due to release theatrically in May 2020, but got postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Director Ribhu, while speaking about the project said, "I always wanted to explore this genre and loved this unique story. There is plenty to relate to both in terms of the emotions and mysteries that I was able to delve into in this thriller -- rejection, loneliness, voyeurism, daily commutes on which we see and don't see things," Ribhu said.

"It was an extremely fruitful experience working on the film. I hope the audience will be as excited watching The Girl On The Train as I was making it," he added.

The film is the Hindi remake of The Girl On The Train, a Hollywood thriller based on Paula Hawkins' 2015 bestseller of the same name. The Hollywood film by Tate Taylor featured Emily Blunt in the lead role.

The film follows the story of Meera (Parineeti), who fixates on the perfect lives of a couple from afar, during her daily train commutes. One day, she witnesses something out of the ordinary that shocks her. It also stars Aditi Rao Hydari, Kirti Kulhari and Avinash Tiwary.

American writer duo joins Vikram Bhatt's next

CE FEATURES

VIKRAM Bhatt's upcoming feature film will have the American writer duo Carey and Chad Hayes (The Conjuring, House Of Wax) as screenplay consultants. This project has been titled The Cello and the horror film is based on a story by Saudi poet-songwriter Turki Al-Sheikh, whose pen name is Rozam.

"Filmmaking is a collaborative process, and to work with the best is an honour. We are excited about The Cello, as it not only 'plays' up to everything we love about these types of movies, but also promises a mind-blowing story with scares that will chill even the bravest to the bone," said Carey and Chad Hayes said in a statement.

NO TIME TO DIE RELEASE PUSHED TO NOVEMBER?

CE FEATURES

THE much-awaited No Time To Die, which is set to bring back Daniel Craig as the iconic James Bond, has been postponed yet again.

Dailymail.co.uk reported that the film, which was slated to be released on April 2, will be delayed to November. Directed by Cary Joji Fukunaga, it was initially scheduled for release in April 2020, but was pushed back to November due to COVID-19 pandemic. Later on, it was once again changed to April 2021.

The 25th Bond adventure will see Craig revisiting his past, bringing it to the present in order to save the future.

No Time To Die marks the last film starring Daniel Craig as James Bond. The film also features Rami Malek as the new Bond villain, Safin, and brings back Lea Seydoux as Dr Madeleine Swann, Ben Whishaw as Q, Ralph Fiennes as M, Naomie Harris as Moneypenny and Jeffrey Wright as CIA agent Felix Leiter.
